Traffic Mishaps Kill Two Teens

Separate traffic accidents in Berrien and Van Buren counties early Sunday claimed the lives of a 17-year-old Benton Harbor boy and a Watervliet area girl, also 17.

The victims were: Lawrence Rockette, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lafayette Rockette of 830 Monroe street, Benton Harbor, who died of injuries received when struck by an auto in Benton township of Berrien County.

Paula Jean Haight, daughter of Mrs. Duane Hiler, Box 112 Hennessey road, Route 2, Watervliet, who died when hurtled from an auto spinning on ice on a road near Hartford, Van Buren county.

The deaths were the fifth in Berrien county this year and the fourth in Van Buren. Three people had been killed in Berrien traffic accidents at the same time last year. In Van Buren, Sunday's traffic death was the second in two days.

Benton township police said the car-pedestrian accident occurred at 1:18 a.m., when Rockette and two other youths were walking along Pipestone road near Ravenna avenue, just southeast of the Benton Harbor city limits.

Police identified the driver of the car as Bernice Mitchell, 54, of 1007 Buss avenue, apartment 3, Benton Harbor. No charges were filed, pending further investigation and a review by the Berrien county prosecutor's office, police said.

Police said Rockette was alive, but unconscious, after the accident. He died at 4:06 a.m. at Mercy hospital.

Police said Rockette suffered head, chest and back injuries, and was hurled 165 feet from the point of impact.

Police said an investigation indicated that Rockette was walking north on Pipestone with Leon Lloyd, 17, of 883 Pearl street and Randy Bell, 14, of 1083 Monroe, both of Benton Harbor. The Mitchell auto also was northbound, police said. Damage to the auto included a broken right headlight, police reported. The estimated speed was not reported.

Police said Leon Lloyd reported the three were walking on the roadway and heard a car approaching. Lloyd said he and Randy Bell stepped off the road, and then heard the impact.

Lloyd said they had left the home of a friend in Crystal court and were walking to the home of another friend for a party.

Mrs. Mitchell was reported alone in the car, a 1971 Buick. Police said Mrs. Mitchell reported having been at the home of a brother-in-law, Warren Mitchell of Algonquin drive, Sodus township.

State police said Miss Haight was killed about 3 a.m. when an auto she was driving went out of control on 66th avenue, near 67th street. Officers said the auto spun on ice and stopped abruptly when the vehicle came to a dry area. The car came to rest in a field.

Police said during the spin, Miss Haight was hurled out the driver's door and crushed beneath the vehicle. Officers reported that the door was damaged in an earlier accident and gave way.

Miss Haight was pronounced dead at the scene by Dr. Carl Boothby of Hartford, a Van Buren county deputy medical examiner.

Passengers, all unhurt, were: William F. Shaffer, 21, of 1555 Nichols road, rural Benton Harbor; and Dennis Junco, 20, Elm street, Watervliet.

Lawrence Rockette was born Jan. 10, 1959, in Benton Harbor.

Surviving are his parents, Lafayette and Lola Rockette, Benton Harbor; two sisters, Lolita and Linette, both of Benton Harbor; three brothers, Leslie, with the United States Navy in Memphis, Tenn., Lafayette Jr., and Lloyd, both of Benton Harbor; his grandfather, Eara Rockette, Benton Harbor and the maternal grandmother, Mrs. Alice Gray, Benton Harbor.

Funeral arrangements were incomplete this forenoon at Juhns Brothers funeral home.

Miss Haight was born July 31, 1958 in Watervliet and had attended Watervliet high school. She was a member of Coloma Faith Lutheran church.

Surviving are her mother, Mrs. Duane (Bonita) Hiler, Watervliet; two brothers, Michael Haight, Scottsdale, Ariz., and Keith Hiler, at home; her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Julius Schlitt of Twenty-nine Palms, Calif. Her father, George Haight preceded her in death.

Funeral services will be held at 2 p.m. Tuesday in Calvin funeral home, Hartford, where friends may call. Burial will be in Coloma cemetery.

Memorials may be made to Berrien County Cancer Society.

FBI Is Probing Bo's Ski Plans

DENVER (AP) — The FBI has begun investigating the proposed expansion of a Colorado ski area controlled by Howard "Bo" Callaway.

U.S. Atty. James L. Treece says the probe began when an agent relayed to federal prosecutors a report that a bribe might have been paid. A newsman says the report originated with an anonymous telephone call he received.

Callaway took a voluntary leave of absence from his post as President Ford's campaign manager over the weekend after Sen. Floyd K. Haskett, D-Colo., announced that his Senate subcommittee will hold hearings on the resort at Crested Butte, Colo.

The Senate investigation was prompted not by allegations of bribery but by questions about a meeting last summer in which Callaway, then secretary of the Army, met with Forest Service officials in the Pentagon and asked that the ski area be allowed to expand, according to then-Undersecretary of Agriculture J. Phillip Campbell.

Campbell says he was at the meeting. The Forest Service is part of the Department of Agriculture.

The bribery allegations do not mention Callaway's name. But Treece said it was the possibility of bribery that gave the FBI a connection in the case. He said such a bribe would be a federal crime.

The bribery allegations apparently originated with a newsman who said he was told by an anonymous caller that $135,000 had been paid. The alleged recipient denied it and said he called for the investigation. The newsman said he would not have even printed the story had officials not begun an investigation.

On Sunday, Simon Tulhai, assistant agent-in-charge of the Denver FBI office, confirmed that the FBI was investigating the case but refused further comment. "We were told back at headquarters to refer questions in the U.S. attorney's office," Tulhai said.

Callaway said he is confident there has been no impropriety. He said he asked to be relieved because he feels Ford's reputation of openness, honesty and integrity makes it "important to go the extra mile." Ford said in Greensboro, N.C., that he was relieving Callaway at Callaway's request.

Like almost all Rocky Mountain ski resorts, Crested Butte operates on public land and its owners pay the government royalties.

The controversy began after the Crested Butte Development Corp., in which Callaway owns the controlling interest, applied to the Forest Service for inclusion of Mt. Snodgrass, adjacent to the present area.

BH Dental Clinic Closing Backed By Dental Society

By JIM DeLAND

Assistant City Editor
Officers of the Lakeland Valley Dental Society have reaffirmed their support of plans to phase out the remedial dental clinic in Benton Harbor and voiced their strong opposition to public funding of such a facility.

The officers also declared in a joint statement that in 1974 the dental society approved and supported a privately funded dental clinic proposed for Benton Harbor but that opposition by "some of the leaders in the black community" led to abandonment of the plan.

The statement was issued by Dr. John L. Porritt, president of the society; Dr. Douglas R. Pelland, president-elect; and Dr. Gordon Byrd, secretary-treasurer.

Porritt said that in 1974 three dentists proposed opening a privately funded clinic and were in the process of obtaining approval from the state when opposition from black leaders, including Mayor Charles Joseph scuttled the plan. Joseph said this morning he had no comment on the matter.

Plans to phase out the present clinic at 664 East High street by June 30 were announced last week by the Berrien county health department, which has administered the program with various federal funds for the past 11 years.

The health department said that a backlog of needy cases has been eliminated and that all patients presently being treated at the clinic now could be treated by private dentists through Medicaid.

That contention was challenged by Dr. Harzel Taylor, who has headed the Benton Harbor clinic since its inception in 1965.

Taylor, a member of the Lakeland Valley Dental Society, also said he planned to try to keep the clinic operating with Community Development funds already approved for Benton Harbor and Benton township to treat school-age children of the "working poor" who do not qualify for treatment now provided under Medicaid.

"There is no doubt that all patients in Benton Harbor now could be handled by the private sector," said Porritt.

"In 1972 and 1973 there was a problem because of the shortage of dentists. But since 1973 there has been an influx of nine dentists to the Twin Cities area and there has been an effort on the part of the dental society to encourage dentists to take their share of Medicaid patients."

Porritt also said that according to a survey conducted by the dental society last year, 18 local dentists are accepting all Medicaid patients and an additional 12 dentists are accepting certain age groups.

He said this effort has played a great part in reducing to zero a waiting list of Medicaid patients the health department said was almost 1,000 just a year ago.

"We have no personal quarrel with Dr. Taylor," Porritt stressed. "He's a good dentist and a nice guy. There's no reason why these patients could not continue to go to him if he were in private practice...and I imagine a lot of them would."

"What we want to see is freedom of choice by individuals to go to any dentist they choose," added Dr. Pelland. "We have no objection of public funding for their dental needs, but providing a clinic is a whole different ball game."

The dental society officers said that Community Development funds earmarked for the clinic could be administered through an "umbrella" agency such as the Michigan Dental Service Corporation, which operates the Delta Dental program.

Under such a setup, they said, the city or township could establish any criteria they wished for patients, who could choose any dentist in the area. Dentists then would submit bills to the Delta Dental program, which would pay the bills out of Community Development funds available.

Porritt said the Lakeland Valley Dental Society currently has a membership of some 90 private dentists, primarily with practices in Berrien and Cass counties.

The full statement issued by the society officers:

"The Lakeland Valley Dental Society recognizes the fact that there has been a problem in Benton Harbor regarding the limited availability of dental care for its citizens."

"We have no opposition to the Benton Harbor dental clinic, per se, but we are unalterably opposed to public funding of such a facility. Rather than fund a

Flying Two Directions At Once Over Kincheloe

The inspiration in every movie on the military we have ever seen or heard of follows the theme of the cavalry riding to the rescue, of bombs always on target, of battlewagons blasting the enemy out of the water.

This is great for the viewer's morale, but the presentation really is giving a shot of the iceberg whose upper one-tenth only is visible and the rest is below the water line.

Behind the sound and fury in the passage at arms in the hum drum of supplying, clothing and training the troops, housing them when not in combat, and otherwise in a comparable manner, going all through the preparation a housewife must undertake to put her home in condition for an afternoon tea.

Luckily for the U.S. what few battles or wars its military lost never compromised the national existence. By and large the American fighting spirit and generalship surpassed that of its enemies.

Great as it has been in fielding a winner, the military has a way of scoring low in much of its logistical endeavor.

The latest example is last week's announcement by the Air Force that it intends to close out its SAC (Strategic Air Command) function at the Kincheloe Air Base near Sault St. Marie.

The reason presumably follows in the pattern that missiles are obsolescing the manned bomber. Though not every high placed person in the military establishment accepts the premise, the fact remains that less reliance is placed today on SAC than when it was created shortly following World War II.

The news still finds the Soo area in a state of shock because the Kincheloe payroll of $36 million a year represents the difference between a bad economic situation and what could be even worse.

The day following the AF's headquarters' announcement from Washington, the additional news emerged that for the past few months the Army Engineers acting as the land procurement agent for all Army and Air Force military real estate had bought 40 acres adjacent to the base and had begun condemnation proceedings to acquire another 10. The Air Force sought the entire 50 acres for a clearance zone at one end of Kincheloe's runways.

The papers to transfer the 40 acres were signed on the day of the announced shutdown. The Engineers' procurement chief in charge of the deal acknowledged he read about the intended closing in the newspapers.

Not having been given the official word in the customary official form, however, he went ahead with the deal because he felt the government to be honor bound to follow through on its commitment with the private owners.

He did, though, order the condemnation suit to be moved to the judicial backburner.

An Air Force PIO (public information officer) at Washington described the incident as a coincidence and certainly not an illustration of the left hand not knowing what the right hand is doing.

There is no faulting the Engineers procurement officer because it is likely the government would have to pay almost as much for defaulting on its purchase agreement as it would on the full contract price.

One can only wonder, however, contrary to the PIO's rationale, if the Pentagon arrives at a course of action by first crossing its feet.

Just to frost the Kincheloe cake, before the base can be shut down, the Air Force has to satisfy the government's Environmental Protection Agency regulations that the closing will not create ecological problems.

Speaking strictly as a layman, we would think it should not be necessary to spend additional time and taxpayer money to conclude that eliminating the noise of jet aircraft could do anything but improve the environment.

Nonetheless, this is the way the government goes about things, and why the citizenry is taxed to death to pay for that unwieldy procedure.

This being an election year, the chance for Kincheloe to be closed can be stated in hypothetical terms.

As commander in chief of the armed forces, Jerry Ford would send the Air Force hierarchy on a one-way mission to the moon if so much as one civilian clerk should be separated from the Kincheloe payroll.

In light of that self-evident reality, perhaps the Kincheloe news is not what will happen, but rather an illustration of how it might come about.

Demise Of Family Farm Is Greatly Exaggerated

Reports of the demise of the family farm have been greatly exaggerated.

"Far from disappearing, the family farm still accounts for about two-thirds of American agricultural production, says Don Paarlberg, the chief economist of the U.S. Department of Agriculture. Not only that, but this percentage has remained stable over a long period of time.

The family is a very tough competitor, a very durable institution," he writes in The Saturday Evening Post. "It has survived war, depression, inflation and natural disaster. With a few highly visible and much publicized exceptions, it has thus far adapted itself very well to a technological revolution."

One reason is the family farm's resilience. If a bad year comes along, either in terms of poor yields or low prices, huge industrialized farms may go under because of fixed prices, mainly labor.

Some forms of agriculture lend themselves more readily than others to industrial methods. The poultry industry, for example, "now probably bears a closer resemblance, organizationally, to General Motors than it does to the historic family farm," says Paarlberg.

For the majority of farms in the United States, however, the greatest efficiencies of size have been achieved with suitably equipped two-man operations, he says.

TAKE KILLER AWAY FROM THE GUN

Editor,
Arms control is the big cry today. What to do about handguns. Our Constitution says the bearing of arms shall not be infringed on. To take all arms away from everybody would make nobody happier than the Communists. They disarm the people then take over.

The thing to do is not to take the arms away from anybody including the killer. If a killer is caught redhanded, take him directly to the electric chair and don't stop on the way so some lawyer can fill his pocket with the people's money through litigation. Strap him into the electric chair, turn the current on until he is well cooked. Bury him. The state is then safer because it has one killer less.

Do not take the gun away from the killer, take the killer away from the gun. That is the principle by which the children of Israel put away the sin from among them. That was God's order. Even if the gun was taken away from the murderer he would still be a murderer. He would kill with a knife. If knives were all taken away he would kill with a rock or a club or even choke somebody to death because he is a killer at heart.

The same holds true with the shoplifter. Should the shops be taken away because there are shoplifters around? Leave the shops, we need them. Take care of the thief, if he is caught with the stolen goods, let the state make him wear the name "shoplifter" in red letters across his back, even if he goes to church.

The same punishment should be given the litterer who throws whiskey bottles and beer cans along the highways. Anyone who litters has had a bringing-up without principle.

Editor,
The excellent letter by Jim Ann Johnson regarding the so-called "Equal Rights Amendment" which appeared on page thirty-one of Thursday's paper ought not to have been buried so deep. It was also a shame that the typesetter mistakenly captioned it "Overjoyed by EPA decision". ERA is a recognizable abbreviation. What does EPA stand for?

Your syndicated columnist Marianne Means favors ERA. I am not assuming that you agree with everything that the syndicated columnist compose. Ms. Means says that the "Equal Rights Amendment" will go much farther than existing equal opportunity civil rights legislation. Ms. Means says that the ERA will not take away a mother's right to child support payments. Ms. Means proclaims the idea that women will become subject to hazardous military duty under ERA. Ms. Means gets page two every time she appears and has her photo there to catch one's eye.

The questions will not go away. Do you agree with Ms. Means? Do you favor passage of the "Equal Rights Amend-

WONDERS ABOUT MAYOR JOSEPH

Editor,
First of all, I want to compliment you on your editorial a few days ago entitled "Helen In Wonderland". I thought that your remarks were very good and true, and hit the nail on the head.

While reading your March 12 issue, I saw on the front page your article about Whirlpool Credit Union filing suit on Mayor Joseph for two long overdue loans he has had with them for several years. The total of those suits were $485.18 plus the judgment against him by the bank in Chicago in the amount of $211.00 plus the suit filed by Michigan State university in the amount of $1,000.00 makes a total owed of $10,176.16.

My thoughts are, if Mayor Joseph can not handle his own financial affairs, how in the world can he have the gall to want $25,000.00 a year plus expenses, to handle the affairs of the City of Benton Harbor? I feel certain, that if Mayor Joseph has any remarks to make about this, that he will claim he can not pay because he is unemployed, but what Benjamin Carlton Hoyt, famous in this part of the country as one of the few surviving veterans of the Black Hawk war, is critically ill at the home of his daughter, Mrs. F. D. Potter, in St. Joseph. Hoyt is perhaps the most interesting character in Berrien county. He is 94 years of age and is the oldest surviving resident of the county seat. He came to St. Joseph in 1829, and when the Black Hawk war broke out three years later he was one of a company of forty men raised in the district along the St. Joe river, between St. Joseph and Niles. The Ottawas, Chippewas, and Pottawatomies were then numerous about the mouth of the river, and Mr. Hoyt's company was garrisoned here to hold them in check until Black Hawk was subdued. Each member of the little company was given a pension of $86 per year and 160 acres of land, besides being the recipient of a generous bounty. The old veteran was a member of the first grand jury impaneled in Berrien county, was county clerk from 1832 to 1834, and during the succeeding two years filled the office of county treasurer. He was president of St. Joseph village from 1851 to 1857.

Next President Not Listed Here

WASHINGTON — (NEA) — There is loose information circulating the country that Ronald Reagan, Henry Jackson, Gerald Ford, Jimmy Carter and George Wallace are the leading contenders this presidential season.

Hah! After months of consultation with the top political strategists of both parties, I've learned exactly the opposite is true. These men have no chance at all, and I shall tell you why.

It is disarmingly simple, for the most part. You'll recall that Carter won the New Hampshire primary. Well, no — fix your mind on the idea that he lost, for that is the core of the ultimate design. In New Hampshire Carter was used by his supporters merely for the purpose of embarrassing Birch Bayh, who represented Washington.

You see? It is of course true that Carter did have the solid backing in New Hampshire of that coalition of center-right Democrats who oppose Lincoln-esque candidates with one eye, which Udall is, but this group is discounted in most camps as being little more than the soft underbelly of the faction that really favored a Lloyd Bentsen-Milton Shapp ticket which would give the Russians some rest pause.

Incidentally, one must not forget that it was Bentsen, in effect standing in for John Connally, who conducted the early poll in New Hampshire which indicated that 96 per cent of the voters knew whom they liked but wouldn't tell. That, of course, effectively eliminated Nelson Rockefeller from further consideration and thereby set the scenario for the Carter win that destroyed his candidacy. (By the by, Carter was also hurt by his smile; what's so damn funny?)

Ah, Wallace, he's the sly one this campaign. Actually, he favors the busing of every black child in Alabama to Boston schools, yet there wasn't a peep of this in the Massachusetts primary. One supposes therefore these elections are called preferential primaries because candidates will say whatever the voters prefer.

This brings me to Henry Jackson. And that is enough said about him. When Hubert Humphrey announces, he will inherit the Jackson supporters, for they are infatuated with dillards, and in fact are led by one, George Meany. It is true that Humphrey will be a sentimental favorite.

So there you have it, briefly. On request I can go into greater detail. But the nub of the matter is that the next president will emerge adjacent from the debris of those mentioned. And though I know not what others may think about it, I feel Richard Nixon deserves another chance.

Udall Moment Of Truth

WASHINGTON (KFS) — Rep. Morris Udall, trying to convince the liberals to rally around his candidacy, is banking everything on pulling a McGovern in Wisconsin next month.

It is a dubious strategy, for this year's presidential campaign does not resemble that of 1972 in any important way. But it is also probably the only thing Udall can do. He is low on money and low on excitement.

Udall is not competing actively in the next two primaries, in Illinois and North Carolina, having conceded those states in advance to more conservative and better-financed candidates. He has fielded states in only slightly more than half the congressional districts in the New York primary on April 6, due to a lack of money and a failure to win the New Democratic Coalition endorsement, which would have provided him with free manpower.

The Democratic National Committee had long ago ruled that the Wisconsin primary would have to be merely a "beauty contest" and its delegates chosen in caucus because its system permitted party cross-overs in violation of party regulations. But, last weekend, under pressure from Udall, liberals on the party's compliance review commission voted to ignore the party rules and make the primary a binding test, and therefore an important one once again.

But it could all backfire. Significantly, Gov. George

Wallace's representatives on the commission also ploughed for recognition of the Wisconsin system.

In 1972, Wallace ran second in Wisconsin, behind McGovern. Post-election polls showed that both McGovern and Wallace benefited from Republican cross-over votes and that without the Republicans Sen. Hubert Humphrey would have won the primary. The Democratic party's original ruling was born of outrage at Republican meddling in the choice of the Democratic nominee.

Udall has a better chance to win in liberal Wisconsin than he does in New York, but not a whole heck of a lot better.

Udall has a good organization in the state and has all along planned a major campaign there. But recent polls indicate that not very many people recognize his name, whereas some of the other Democrats have a high name identification factor. And he must raise substantial funds between now and April 6, if he is to compete with Wallace and Jackson in expenses.

Wisconsin made McGovern; it could break Udall. But it seems unlikely any new liberal could pick up the pieces if Udall stumbles. The filing deadline of all but six primary states will have passed by the time of the Wisconsin primary, and only one — New Jersey on June 6 — offers a big block of delegates. The cast, with the addition of Sen. Frank Church, seems to be complete, with all its weaknesses.

Flying Two Directions At Once Over Kincheloe

The inspiration in every movie on the military we have ever seen or heard of follows the theme of the cavalry riding to the rescue, of bombs always on target, of battlewagons blasting the enemy out of the water.

This is great for the viewer's morale, but the presentation really is giving a shot of the iceberg whose upper one-tenth only is visible and the rest is below the water line.

Behind the sound and fury in the passage at arms in the hum drum of supplying, clothing and training the troops, housing them when not in combat, and otherwise in a comparable manner, going all through the preparation a housewife must undertake to put her home in condition for an afternoon tea.

Luckily for the U.S. what few battles or wars its military lost never compromised the national existence. By and large the American fighting spirit and generalship surpassed that of its enemies.

Great as it has been in fielding a winner, the military has a way of scoring low in much of its logistical endeavor.

The latest example is last week's announcement by the Air Force that it intends to close out its SAC (Strategic Air Command) function at the Kincheloe Air Base near Sault St. Marie.

The reason presumably follows in the pattern that missiles are obsolescing the manned bomber. Though not every high placed person in the military establishment accepts the premise, the fact remains that less reliance is placed today on SAC than when it was created shortly following World War II.

The news still finds the Soo area in a state of shock because the Kincheloe payroll of $36 million a year represents the difference between a bad economic situation and what could be even worse.

The day following the AF's headquarters announcement from Washington, the additional news emerged that for the past few months the Army Engineers acting as the land procurement agent for all Army and Air Force military real estate had bought 40 acres adjacent to the base and had begun condemnation proceedings to acquire another 10. The Air Force sought the entire 50 acres for a clearance zone at one end of Kincheloe's runways.

The papers to transfer the 40 acres were signed on the day of the announced shutdown. The Engineers' procurement chieftain in charge of the deal acknowledged he read about the intended closing in the newspapers.

Not having been given the official word in the customary official form, however, he went ahead with the deal because he felt the government to be honor bound to follow through on its commitment with the private owners.

He did, though, order the condemnation suit to be moved to the judicial backburner.

An Air Force PIO (public information officer) at Washington described the incident as a coincidence and certainly not an illustration of the left hand not knowing what the right hand is doing.

There is no faulting the Engineers procurement officer because it is likely the government would have to pay almost as much for defaulting on its purchase agreement as it would on the full contract price.

One can only wonder, however, contrary to the PIO's rationale, if the Pentagon arrives at a course of action by first crossing its feet.

Just to frost the Kincheloe cake, before the base can be shut down, the Air Force has to satisfy the government's Environmental Protection Agency regulations that the closing will not create ecological problems.

Speaking strictly as a layman, we would think it should not be necessary to spend additional time and taxpayer money to conclude that eliminating the noise of jet aircraft could do anything but improve the environment.

Nonetheless, this is the way the government goes about things, and why the citizenry is taxed to death to pay for that unwieldy procedure.

This being an election year, the chance for Kincheloe to be closed can be stated in hypothetical terms.

As commander in chief of the armed forces, Jerry Ford would send the Air Force hierarchy on a one-way mission to the moon if so much as one civilian clerk should be separated from the Kincheloe payroll.

In light of that self-evident reality, perhaps the Kincheloe news is not what will happen, but rather an illustration of how it might come about.

Demise Of Family Farm Is Greatly Exaggerated

Reports of the demise of the family farm have been greatly exaggerated.

Far from disappearing, the family farm still accounts for about two-thirds of American agricultural production, says Don Paarlberg, the chief economist of the U.S. Department of Agriculture. Not only that, but this percentage has remained stable over a long period of time.

One reason is the family farm's resilience. If a bad year comes along, either in terms of poor yields or low prices, huge industrialized farms may go under because of fixed prices, mainly labor.

Some forms of agriculture lend themselves more readily than others to industrial methods. The poultry industry, for example, "now probably bears a closer resemblance, organizationally, to General Motors than it does to the historic family farm," says Paarlberg.

For the majority of farms in the United States, however, the greatest efficiencies of size have been achieved with suitably equipped two-man operations, he says.

WONDERS ABOUT MAYOR JOSEPH

Editor,

First of all, I want to compliment you on your editorial a few days ago entitled "Helen In Wonderland". I thought that your remarks were very good and true, and hit the nail on the head.

While reading your March 12 issue, I saw on the front page your article about Whirlpool Credit Union filing suit on Mayor Joseph for two long overdue loans he has had with them for several years. The total of these suits were $4965.16 plus the judgment against him by the bank in Chicago in the amount of $4211.00 plus the suit filed by Michigan State university in the amount of $1,000.00 makes a total owed of $10,176.16.

My thoughts are, if Mayor Joseph can not handle his own financial affairs, how in the world can he have the gall to want $25,000.00 a year plus expenses, to handle the affairs of the City of Benton Harbor? I feel certain, that if Mayor Joseph has any remarks to make about this, that he will claim he can not pay because he is unemployed, but what about his consulting business he has been bragging about? No business? Why did he leave Whirlpool and give up a good income, if he can not pay his bills?

I hope that the voters of Benton Harbor will wake up and smell the coffee soon, and realize that Mayor Joseph and his "Clean Slate" bunch are doing more to flush Benton Harbor down the drain, than they are helping the city to ascend the ladder up to the level it was 15 years ago. I am a businessman in the twin cities area, who does a lot of business with many people and firms in Benton Harbor, and I hope that the voters and businessmen in that city realize what is happening and do something about it, or a good many of us will lose out financially due to the mass exodus of home owners and businesses leaving Benton Harbor which will make it a "Vast Wasteland" and leave it without enough tax base that is collectable, to run the city.

This is the first time that I have agreed with Maurice Bishop in the many changes he has proposed over the years, but I am in accord on the recall movement, but would like to caution him and his group, that they should be very careful who they pick to replace Joseph and his bunch, or they may not be an improvement.

Area Auto Repair Shops Will Join Protest

By JIM DeLAND
Staff Writer

Representatives of Twin Cities area auto repair shops plan to join with some 2,000 repair shop owners from throughout Michigan Thursday in a mass protest over the state's new auto repair law. Plans announced Sunday during a rally in Lansing call for the repair shop owners to converge at the state Capitol Thursday morning to talk to individual legislators and then move on to the Ingham county courthouse in Mason for a hearing on a suit challenging the constitutionality of the new law.

Local auto shop owners also will meet with representatives of the state Department of Motor Vehicles Tuesday noon in the Benton Harbor city commission chambers to receive information on the controversial law. The law, which went into effect March 1, requires licensing and registration of auto repair firms and written estimates for repairs expected to cost more than $20.

Industry spokesmen say the law and the additional paperwork it entails will cost each of the 40,000 repair shops in the state at least $5,000 per year and that the total cost of more than $200 million will be passed on to consumers. Yesterday's rally in Lansing was attended by some 1,200 representatives of independent garages, service stations, bump and paint shops and auto dealers around the state.

Halanika of Letroy's Body Shop, Benton Harbor; Gene Karsten, Alwood Body Shop, St. Joseph; Wes Eichler, Eichler's Body Shop, Sodus; and George Schmalbach, Selfridge Body Shop, Benton Harbor. Halanika is president of the Southwestern Michigan Body Shop Association.

During Sunday's rally at Harry Hill high school in Lansing, auto shop owners were urged to close their shops Thursday, "swarm the Capitol" and "plug Mason tighter than a rusty bolt with a couple of hundred wreckers." Plans call for meeting in front of the Capitol at 8:30 a.m. and leaving at 9:30 a.m. for Mason, where the hearing will be held on a suit filed by the Automotive Service Council, one of the organizers of the protest.

The suit, filed in Ingham County Circuit court, seeks to prevent enforcement of the new law and to challenge its constitutionality. The Automotive Service Council has issued a position paper declaring the law "is a criminal statute even more than a regulatory statute" in that it presupposes criminal action by repair shop owners. The paper states that the Bureau of Auto Repair, in California found that only two-tenths of 1 per cent of all complaints actually were valid and that in an entire year only one case actually was prosecuted.

The paper also claims that added paperwork under the new law will add between $5 and $10 to each repair bill and that some $6 million in registration fees also would have to be passed on to consumers.

BH School District Polls To Open At 7 A.M. For Ballots On Millage

Polls will be open from 7 a.m. to 8 p.m. tomorrow at 27 places in the Benton Harbor school district for balloting on two millage proposals.

Proposal No. 1 is renewal of 7.5 mills in operating taxes for one year.

Proposal No. 2 is a 1-mill building maintenance tax that would run for five years for repair of school district buildings.

Passage of proposal No. 1 means the district in 1976 will have essentially the same operating millage as 1975 — 29.720 mills. Proposal No. 2 is a tax increase.

If both proposals are passed the district's total levy for 1976 would be approximately 31.2 mills, including five-tenths of a mill for retirement of building bond issues.

The 7.5 mills produced $1.6 million in operating taxes in 1975 or about 25 per cent of the amount the district raised through local property taxes and 10 per cent of the total budget.

The 1-mill building maintenance tax would raise about $200,000 annually or $1 million over five years.

All registered voters in the district are eligible to ballot.

Polling places are: Calvin Britain school, Senior high school, Benton Harbor junior high, Lake Michigan Catholic middle school, Columbus school, city hall, Seely McCord school, Sterne Drums, Naval Armory, Merton school, Fairplain East school, Fairplain Northeast, Fairplain West, Fairplain Northwest, Bard school, Boynton, Sodus school, Ithill, Johnson, Latayette, Millburg school, North Shore school, Pearl school, Sorter, Spinks Corners school, Stump school and Martindale school.

Recall Chiefs Issue Charge Of Slander

Three leaders of a drive to recall Benton Harbor Mayor Charles Joseph and four "Clean Slate" city commissioners have charged Commissioner Helen Ford with slander and demanded retraction of statements she made regarding a claimed conspiracy to assassinate the mayor.

The charge and demand for retraction were made in a letter from former City Atty. Yvonne Hughes on behalf of Maurice Bishop, Morgan L. Hager Jr. and Carl Brown, a former city commissioner.

Bishop, Hager and Brown are leaders of a drive to recall Joseph and four city commissioners who voted last December not to renew the contract of former City Manager Charles Morrison — Alfred Williams, Charles Shepherd, Barbara Huckaby and Winston Minott.

Mrs. Ford joined these five in boycotting the city commission meeting March 1 and later issued a statement saying the absent members feared for their lives because of "the fact that there were people meeting in the woods with the police chief, unsavory characters, in what appeared to be a conspiracy to carry out the assassination of the mayor."

Police Chief Andrew Rudez denied the charge and said "the

Burns Put Lincoln Man In Hospital

Leonard W. Kenton, 50, a farm worker, suffered severe burns early Sunday in a mobile home he occupied on the Arthur Stewart farm, 6055 Cleveland avenue, Lincoln township, according to Berrien sheriff's officers.

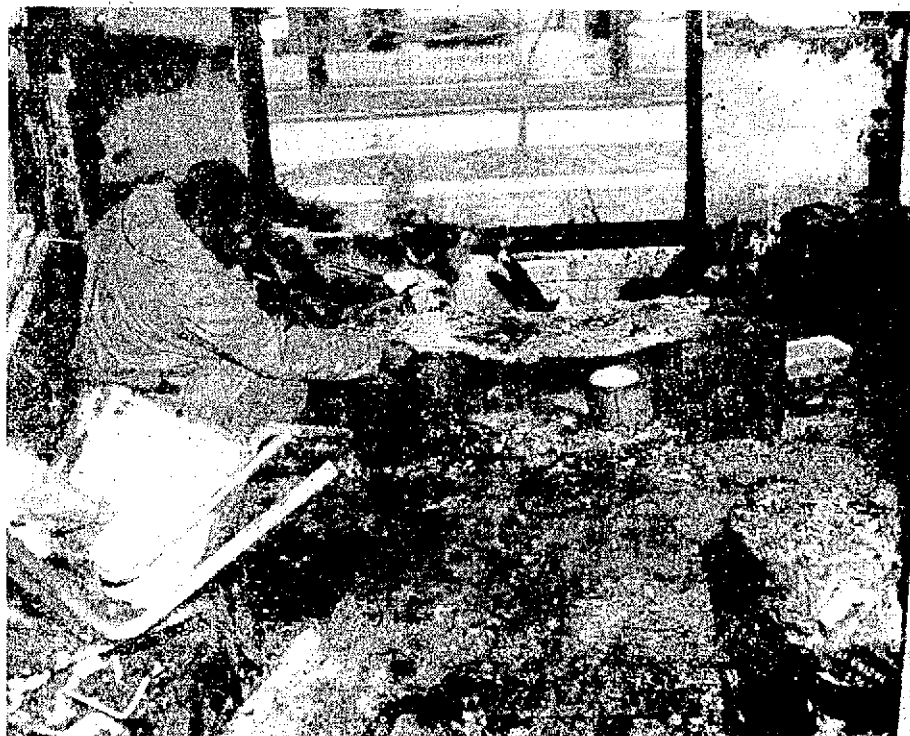

Kenton was listed in "critical" condition this morning in the burn unit of Bronson hospital, Kalamazoo. He sustained second and third degree burns over about 38 per cent of his body, the hospital reported. Kenton was transferred to Bronson from St. Joseph Memorial hospital.

Sheriff's officers said the burns apparently were inflicted by a blaze in a small trash container, just inside the mobile home door.

Siewert called the sheriff's department at 1:50 a.m. Siewert told this newspaper Kenton got out of the mobile unit and was able to get to the Siewert home, about 400 feet away. Siewert said Kenton's clothing was burned, but not ablaze, and the fire in the trailer was a small one. Siewert said he put out the fire. Siewert said he didn't know how Kenton could have received such extensive burns from such a small fire.

Detroit Booked On Gun Charge

Berrien sheriff's officers said James H. Black, 41, Detroit, was booked on a charge of carrying a concealed weapon, after an auto was stopped for speeding on I-94, Lake township, at 3:05 a.m. Sunday. A .32 caliber pistol was confiscated, officers said.

Benton Harbor Firemen Believe Blast Triggered Blaze In Home

Fire believed triggered by an explosion early Sunday extensively damaged the home of Mr. and Mrs. J.C. Coburn, 1085 Bishop avenue, Benton Harbor, according to city firemen.

No injuries occurred and no one was at home at the time, firemen said. Firemen were called at 2:48 a.m. by a neighbor, who reported hearing an explosion. Firemen said they found glass from a living room window, curtains, and lamp shades in the front yard.

Deputy Fire Chief John Billups later Sunday said the blaze appeared incendiary in nature and resulted from some kind of explosion. Billups said more investigating will be needed to determine what caused the explosion. The Coburns told firemen they left home shortly after 10 p.m. Saturday to visit a daughter. The family returned home while firemen were still on the scene.

Fire Capt. Bob Jones reported that the living room and kitchen were destroyed. The adjoining rooms are on the south side. Other areas received heavy smoke damage.

Consumers Suspends Four For Refusing Palisades Jobs

From ASSOCIATED PRESS

Four Consumers Power Co. employees have been temporarily suspended from their jobs because they refused requests of safety to work at the utility's Palisades nuclear power plant near Covert.

Russell Youngdahl, Consumers executive vice president, said Saturday at Jackson that the four employees were suspended for five days for refusing temporary work assignments at the plant.

"We're putting our jobs on the line because we don't believe it's a safe job," said Leroy Windquest, one of the four workers. "Actually, the plant scares the hell out of me."

The 700,000 kilowatt facility opened in 1970, but closed for 18 months beginning in August 1973 because of a series of leaks in the secondary cooling system and vibrations in the nuclear core.

The facility reopened last spring, but has been down for refueling since December.

Consumers currently has a $300 million damage suit lodged against the contractors who built the facility, the largest generating plant in the Consumers system.

Youngdahl said the plant is safe and the pattern of rotated assignments was a normal practice the company has followed for years.

"There are no radiation leaks whatsoever at the Palisades plant," said Youngdahl. "This is a very carefully monitored plant."

Windquest has been a Consumers welder since 1969 and normally is assigned to a non-nuclear plant in Bay City. The other three workers are also normally assigned to the Bay City plant.

Windquest said he and another welder reported to Palisades last week, but both refused to go into the facility.

"I asked them to give me a letter stating that radiation would have no effect on my health now or in the future and they wouldn't do it," said Windquest. "I said, 'I'll scrub your floors, wash your windows and do whatever you want, but without a letter stating that I'll be safe, I don't want to go in there.'"

Earlier in the month, two other workers, both machinists, refused to report to the plant's site.

Elton Williamson, a board member of the Utilities Workers Union Local 144 in Bay City, said the two machinists were not being assigned to machinists' work.

Williamson said the Jackson-based utility company just wanted the men to go to the "hot spots" — locations in the plant where there is a high risk of exposure to radiation.

Williamson and Windquest claimed Consumers Power assigns specialized workers, like welders, to Palisades to replace regular maintenance employees who became "burned out" — exposed to the maximum safe level of radiation.

Youngdahl said precautions are taken to safeguard workers. The utility official said workers are provided with "a detailed and lengthy indoctrination period for an employee going into a nuclear plant. We want to be as certain as they do that there is no safety problem."

He said when a plant is shut down for a major overhaul, it is normal procedure to augment the work force with employees from other plants who are qualified to do the work.

A Utilities Workers Union official who asked not to be identified said the matter will be brought to arbitration and probably will have "wide-spread" repercussions throughout the nuclear industry.

The incident is the second rebellion in the nuclear field within the last six weeks. In early February three engineers who helped design nuclear plants for General Electric quit their jobs, arguing that atomic power is too dangerous for further development.

Area Auto Repair Shops Will Join Protest

By JIM DeLAND
Staff Writer

Representatives of Twin Cities area auto repair shops plan to join with some 2,000 repair shop owners from throughout Michigan Thursday in a mass protest over the state's new auto repair law. Plans announced Sunday during a rally in Lansing call for the repair shop owners to converge at the state Capitol Thursday morning to talk to individual legislators and then move on to the Ingham county courthouse in Mason for a hearing on a suit challenging the constitutionality of the new law.

Local auto shop owners also will meet with representatives of the state Department of Motor Vehicles Tuesday noon in the Benton Harbor city commission chambers to receive information on the controversial law. The law, which went into effect March 1, requires licensing and registration of auto repair firms and written estimates for repairs expected to cost more than $20.

Industry spokesmen say the law and the additional paperwork it entails will cost each of the 40,000 repair shops in the state at least $5,000 per year and that the total cost of more than $200 million will be passed on to consumers. Yesterday's rally in Lansing was attended by some 1,200 representatives of independent garages, service stations, bump and paint shops and auto dealers around the state.

Halamka of LeRoy's Body Shop, Benton Harbor; Gene Karsten, Atwood Body Shop, St. Joseph; Wes Eichler, Eichler's Body Shop, Sodus; and George Schmalbach, Selfridge Body Shop, Benton Harbor. Halamka is president of the Southwestern Michigan Body Shop Association.

Hope And Self-Confidence Help Build New Business

Makeshift Shop Grows For Paw Paw Couple

By DENNIS COGSWELL
Paw Paw Bureau

PAW PAW — A year ago Jerry Brown and his wife, Ursula, had lost their car, were in danger of losing their home and found themselves with nothing to live on but $128 a week in unemployment benefits and food stamps.

Last September, after nine months of scrimping and saving, they opened their own flower shop and bridal boutique on M-40 north of here. The opening came with little more than hope and self-confidence.

In the first month, Brown said, he did $3,000 worth of business and things have continued to improve, although trade is slow now during the winter months.

"We're not over the hump yet," Brown, 37, said. "We're going through the growing pains any new business suffers. It's just a question of time. We're going to make it — we don't have any choice but to make it."

Twice laid off well paying jobs, Brown said he became fed up with what seemed to him to be the corporate idea of putting profits ahead of people, and decided that the only way he would beat the rat race was to work for himself.

Working out of the basement of their house and an 8-by-10 foot greenhouse, the Browns started their own flower business, setting aside $10 to $15 each week from their meager income to buy inventory.

"We all went without a lot of things," said Brown, who has two children. "We had been going out once a week, but we stopped going anywhere."

As part of their economy measures, the family canned food, watched for sales, and learned what they could purchase with food stamps, he said.

At first the business was makeshift. Two sawhorses supported an old restaurant counter top which served as a display counter. A 30-year-old fur storage cooler was purchased to keep flowers fresh.

"I contacted wholesalers and laid it on the line that I didn't have any money, but that I needed merchandise," Brown related. "Then I persuaded a bridal shop in Kalamazoo to let me sell some of their dresses on 10 per cent commission. After a while, I decided it was stupid to be making only 10 per cent of the profit and contacted a dress manufacturer and arranged to buy directly from him."

The began about three years ago. On the same day Mrs. Brown gave birth to the couple's first child, Brown was laid off his job as controller at St. Julian Winery, Paw Paw.

He was able to land a job as an internal auditor for a real estate firm in Chicago, but the couple continued to make payments on their house in Paw Paw, hoping someday to return.

A year later they returned to the area, with Brown taking a position as an administrative manager for a Kalamazoo metal products company.

But economic trouble struck again. A week after Mrs. Brown gave birth to their second child, Brown was laid off again, a victim of the slumping economy.

In January, 1975, with the Browns unable to make loan payments on the home and car, the bank began foreclosure proceedings.

"At that point we re-evaluated our position," he said. "I decided that if I was going to keep getting laid off, I might as well work for myself."

Brown said he still won't be able to save the house. They will move out when the foreclosure is completed in June.

"Now the only thing we can hope for is that we can put enough money aside to buy another house," he said.

Looking back, Mrs. Brown, 25, said she is sometimes bitter, particularly about what she sees as the bank's inflexibility in taking the house and car when the family was just demonstrating it was making a recovery.

Brown said he believes in the long run the experience may be valuable, because he is now doing what he always wanted.

"If you want it bad enough, you'll get out there and get it," he said.

ON THEIR WAY BACK: Paw Paw couple, Jerry and Ursula Brown check dress on mannequin in their combination flower shop and bridal boutique on M-40, north of Paw Paw. Twice laid off well paying administrative jobs, Brown lost house and car. By cutting down to bare essentials, couple was able to save enough from $128 per week unemployment benefits to open business last September. (Staff photo)

Brown said he still won't be able to save the house. They will move out when the foreclosure is completed in June.

"Now the only thing we can hope for is that we can put enough money aside to buy another house," he said.

Looking back, Mrs. Brown, 25, said she is sometimes bitter, particularly about what she sees as the bank's inflexibility in taking the house and car when the family was just demonstrating it was making a recovery.

Brown said he believes in the long run the experience may be valuable, because he is now doing what he always wanted.

"If you want it bad enough, you'll get out there and get it," he said.

down to bare essentials, couple was able to save enough from $128 per week unemployment benefits to open business last September. (Staff photo)

'Damn Yankees' Is BH Musical

The vocal music department of Benton Harbor high school will present the all school musical "Damn Yankee" Friday and Saturday, April 2 and 3, at 8 p.m. in the high school's performing arts center.

All seats, at $2, are reserved. Tickets may be obtained by calling the high school office.

The play, based on the book by George Abbot and Douglas Wallop, takes place in the 1950s and involves the Washington Senators' drive for the American League pennant. The story is loosely patterned after the classic poem "The Damnation of Faust" by Goethe and "The Devil and Daniel Webster" by Stephen Vincent Benet.

'Your Problems' By Ann Landers

Public Is Made Aware

Dear Ann Landers: In a recent column, you warned of a little-known but not-so-rare disease called Herpes Simplex II, which has been linked with sterility and cancer.

I am not a physician. I'm a college counselor who became acquainted with Herpes through the sad experience of a bright, handsome college student who picked up the infection during a holiday break when he renewed an acquaintance with a former girlfriend.

During our discussion he remembered his girlfriend had been intimate with a man who has frequent cold sores.

Herpes is a cold-sore virus that is rapidly becoming a venereal disease because of the increasing incidence of oral-genital sex. Pornographic movies and "art" have popularized oral sex in a way that was unheard of even five years ago.

As a counselor, I can tell you many of my colleagues (as well as sexologists) are directly or indirectly encouraging oral sex play. I think it is only fair that the public be made aware of the risks that accompany this sort of activity.

I have seen many articles on Herpes in the newspapers and popular magazines, but I have never seen any mention of the connection between Herpes and oral sex. Maybe the writers are too gutless to tell it like it is. How about you, Ann Landers? — Louis A. Berman, Ph.D., Student Counseling Services, U. of Ill.

Dear Dr. B.: The principal purpose of this column is to educate people and help them lead healthier and happier lives.

ANN LANDERS

Your letter merits printing and I thank you for writing.

PTA Parent

Dear Ann Landers: I just returned from a PTA meeting. Twelve parents attended. The school has 300 students. Our meetings never last more than an hour and a half.

Is it any wonder so many kids are in trouble today? If their parents won't bestir themselves to devote 90 minutes one Tuesday a month to attend a meeting that involves the well-being of their children, what can they expect?

Please, Ann, print this letter. I know ours isn't the only PTA that is having a difficult time. Thank you very much. — Oregon Mother

Dear Mother: Here's your letter. And if it makes some people uncomfortable, I'm delighted. You parents out there whose children aren't doing very well in school could learn a lot if you attended some PTA meetings and became acquainted with their teachers. I recommend it.

Go Tuesday

Dear Ann Landers: My married daughter and I discuss your column on the phone every day. If she asks me if I wrote this letter I will deny it.

R. is a wonderful wife and mother. Her home is immaculate and she's a marvelous cook. But her laundry is awful. The girl washes everything together, regardless of color. The baby's white undershirts and panties are gray. Her husband's shirts are so dingy it's a disgrace. The sheets and pillow cases look blue because she throws her husband's socks in the same machine.

It makes me sick whenever I go over there on Monday and see the way R. does the laundry. Thanks for letting me get this off my chest. I feel better already. — Just Mom

Dear Mom: Why don't you go over there on Tuesday instead of Monday? I'm printing your letter so my readers can see what SOME people get sick about. How to — and how much? Find out with Ann Landers' new booklet, "How, What, and When to Tell Your Child About Sex." For your copy, send 50 cents in coin along with a long, stamped, self-addressed envelope to Ann Landers, P.O. Box 1400, Elgin, Illinois 60120.

Lacking Decision

Does anybody out there have a kid who wears one outfit until it falls off his back?

We've got one. You may remember him. We took him on a vacation a few years ago wearing a baseball cap with "REDS" on the bill.

"Isn't that cute?" I said to my husband.

In the restaurant, the cap lost a little of its charm. Seeing it in bed worn with his pajamas became ridiculous. And the next day as I saw him swimming in the pool in his cap, I said, "Even Johnny Bench takes his cap off sometimes."

We were to see the cap every day for the next six weeks. It never left his head. Some viewers speculated he had had brain surgery and it was covering the spot where his head was shaved. One man circulated the rumor that he was a short Communist. We were soon to discover the real truth. He was a child who just couldn't handle a decision.

At breakfast, he ate the same cereal in the same bowl in the same amount for every year of his life. He ate every meal the same way. First, he isolated all of his potatoes and ate them. Then, he marked off his meat, followed by his bread and finally dessert. He never mixed them up. After a clerk had rattled off 87 delicious flavors of ice cream, he always ordered the same — vanilla.

But it was the wearing of one outfit at a time that drove me crazy. It took me awhile to figure it out. Then one morning as I saw the green brushed jeans and the T-shirt with "COORS" on the front head for the door I said, "Didn't you wear that yesterday?"

He nodded and added, "And the day before that!"

"Do you mean to tell me you're sweating in the same outfit three days in a row?"

"Nope. I've worn this outfit since January."

"JANUARY!"

"It's my lucky outfit and I'm doubly protected because I've been wearing my lucky underwear."

"Lucky for whom?" I asked stiffly.

It has been no small thing keeping that kid's luck laundered. I sneak in at night while he sleeps and run those threads through a complete cycle.

Yesterday, I couldn't stand it. "Look, this is ridiculous. Luck or not, you've got to wear a different outfit to school. I mean it! Get yourself back to the bedroom and put on a different pair of pants and clean shirt."

This afternoon, he came home a picture of dejection.

"What happened?" I asked.

"My teacher looked right at me and marked me absent."

Guest speaker will be David Hettiga of the New Buffalo post of the Michigan State Police.

There will also be a pantomime, "Life in Colonial Times."

Wrinkles of the skin on the face and forehead have been difficult to remove. The total face lift has probably been the most successful cosmetic technique.

For awhile, it was thought that silicone injections into the wrinkle areas might be the perfect solution. Unfortunately, silicone has disadvantages, some of them so potentially hazardous that the procedure has been discontinued.

The Food and Drug Administration has gone on record saying it does not approve of the use of silicone for this purpose.

Silicone has a tendency to spread in areas where it is unwanted. It also can cause foreign body reactions.

Now a new idea for the removal of wrinkles is being tried, with safety and success. Dr. John Conley, a plastic surgeon and clinical professor at Columbia Presbyterian Medical Center in New York City, has been using a very fine thread underneath the facial wrinkles.

The idea of this fine threading technique is to produce delicate scar tissue under the skin and thus "fill up" the wrinkles and the creases.

Dr. Conley and his collaborator, Dr. Robert Selfe, perform this surgery under local anesthesia. Later, of course, the thread is removed.

Dr. Conley emphasizes that wrinkling of the skin may again occur after a number of years. But this is also true of other kinds of cosmetic surgery.

Since this procedure is so safe, it can be repeated if necessary.

Plastic surgeons all over the country will undoubtedly be using this technique if the original report of this work is universally substantiated.

I was impressed by statistics that recently were released by the National Safety Council. They point out that more than 10,000 serious falls and severe injuries occur to the elderly each year in America.

Failing eyesight, diminished muscular strength and coordination, and brittleness of the bones are responsible for the fractures and other major injuries.

Many of these could be avoided if the elderly recognize their limitations and learn the art of self-preservation.

Physicians everywhere in America find that aged persons often refuse to use a cane for the added support that would prevent many of the accidents.

DR. LESTER COLEMAN has prepared a special booklet entitled "What to Do About Ulcers." For your copy, send 25 cents in coin and a large, self-addressed, stamped envelope to Lester L. Coleman, M.D., (Ulcer Booklet), P.O. Box 5178, Grand Central Station, New York City 10017. Please mention the booklet by title.

By Oswald & James Jacoby

Jim: "I see you started off your year of nonplaying by attending a sectional tournament at the Pinehurst Hotel in Pinehurst, North Carolina."

Oswald: "I was still a non-player although I did put in two sessions. The rest of the time I just enjoyed myself. I played in a catch-all pair with Ed Lillard, an old friend, but one I have never played with before. We were barred from scoring any master points or taking any trophies, but we did have a 65 per cent game."

Jim: "The bidding of the first hand looks very good. Were you North or South?"

Oswald: "I was North and elected to open my 5-4-3-1 hand with only eleven high-card points. When Ed jumped to two hearts I rebid four hearts to tell Ed that I had good hearts and a minimum."

Jim: "His five-club bid was very good. He knew you wouldn't pass and hoped that you could bid five diamonds to show that ace."

Oswald: "I did. He jumped to six. He would have made seven except that West was unkind enough to open the ace of spades."

Ask the Jacobys

A North Dakota reader wants to know what we respond to our partner's opening heart bid with: ♠ K x x x ♥ x ♦ A J x x x ♣ x x x x.

We respond one spade. This is the correct response in all standard systems and is far preferable to either one no trump or two diamonds.

Delegates Meet To Write 'Law Of Sea'

tions headquarters today for another round of sea-law negotiations that could lead to a multibillion-dollar partnership between the international community and private corporations to mine the riches at the bottom of the world's oceans.

Some 1,400 persons from 150 countries were expected for the resumption of the Third Conference on the Law of the Sea. It will continue until May 7.

After opening speeches by U.N. Secretary-General Kurt Waldheim of Austria and Conference President Hamilton

Shirley Amersinghe of Sri Lanka, closed-door negotiations will begin Tuesday.

Since 1958, the now-defunct U.N. Committee on the Peaceful Uses of the Seabed and three sessions of the law of the sea conference have been trying to produce a general treaty or convention regulating the use and exploitation of the world's oceans and seas and the seabeds beneath them. Diplomats expect that at least one further session, to be held in Geneva, will be needed. "But that does not mean we cannot achieve remarkable success at this session," Amersinghe told newsmen.

The delegates at previous sessions of the conference agreed that the traditional three-mile limit on territorial waters should be extended to 12 miles and that should be supplemented by a 200-mile economic zone in which the adjacent coastal nation would have control of fishing, drilling for oil and other economic exploitation.

Now the emphasis is on the mineral riches that lie beneath the seas outside the 200-mile limit, the unclaimed areas which the United Nations has called "the common heritage of mankind."

SAFE DRIVING

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Records show the safest country to drive in is Egypt and Austria is the most risky.

AFTER 70 YEARS: Pianist Artur Schnabel burlesques a pose of a bust of himself at its unveiling at New York's Carnegie Hall last week. Rubenstein made his American debut there 70 years ago. Tonight he will give what may be his last New York concert there. The Polish-born virtuoso says his eyesight has failed to the point where he can no longer see the keyboard. (AP Wirephoto)

Patty's Recovering

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Government rebuttal testimony in Patricia Hearst's bank robbery trial was expected to resume today when Miss Hearst, nearly recovered from a bout with the flu, returns to court.

"Every indication is she will be in court Monday," defense attorney Albert Johnson said Sunday. "She told me she's improved, although she still has some aching and congestion."

Court sessions were canceled last Thursday and Friday when the 22-year-old newspaper heiress fell ill and was returned to her San Mateo County Jail cell to recuperate.

Delegates Meet To Write 'Law Of Sea'

tions headquarters today for another round of sea-law negotiations that could lead to a multibillion-dollar partnership between the international community and private corporations to mine the riches at the bottom of the world's oceans.

After opening speeches by U.N. Secretary-General Kurt Waldheim of Austria and Conference President Hamilton

Shirley Amerasinghe of Sri Lanka, closed-door negotiations will begin Tuesday.

Since 1968, the now-defunct U.N. Committee on the Peaceful Uses of the Seabed and three sessions of the law of the sea conference have been trying to produce a general treaty or convention regulating the use and exploitation of the world's oceans and seas and the seabeds beneath them. Diplomats expect that at least one further session, to be held in Geneva, will be needed. "But that does not mean we cannot achieve remarkable success at this session," Amerasinghe told newsmen.

The delegates at previous sessions of the conference agreed that the traditional three-mile limit on territorial waters should be extended to 12 miles and that should be supplemented by a 200-mile economic zone in which the adjacent coastal nation would have control of fishing, drilling for oil and other economic exploitation. Now the emphasis is on the mineral riches that lie beneath the seas outside the 200-mile limit, the unclaimed areas which the United Nations has called "the common heritage of mankind."

SAFE DRIVING
SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Records show the safest country to drive in is Egypt and Austria is the most risky.

AFTER 70 YEARS: Pianist Artur Rubenstein burlesques a pose of a bust of himself at its unveiling at New York's Carnegie Hall last week. Rubenstein made his American debut there 70 years ago. Tonight he will give what may be his last New York concert there. The Polish-born virtuoso says his eyesight has failed to the point where he can no longer see the keyboard. (AP Wirephoto)

Patty's Recovering

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Government rebuttal testimony in Patricia Hearst's bank robbery trial was expected to resume today when Miss Hearst, nearly recovered from a bout with the flu, returns to court.

"Every indication is she will be in court Monday," defense attorney Albert Johnson said Sunday. "She told me she's improved, although she still has some aching and congestion."

Court sessions were canceled last Thursday and Friday when the 22-year-old newspaper heiress fell ill and was returned to her San Mateo County Jail cell to recuperate.

'Overconfidence' Biggest Ford Problem In Illinois

By WALTER R. MEARS
AP Special Correspondent
CHICAGO (AP) — President Ford looked for another victory. Ronald Reagan braced for another defeat and the Republican rivals left the campaign arena to Democratic contestants today on the eve of the Illinois presidential primary election.

It was the fifth leg of the White House relay race and among Democrats, a man who wasn't running, Chicago Mayor Richard J. Daley, loomed over the field as he sought to reassert the dominance he once enjoyed in Illinois presidential politics.

Ford managers professed to be more concerned about overconfidence than about the ballot-box impact of a budding controversy over Howard H. Callaway, Ford's suspended campaign manager. Callaway faces an investigation of his role in pressing while secretary of the Army for expansion of the federal land leased to a Colorado ski resort he and his brother-in-law control.

Reagan took a campaign breather and awaited the returns in seclusion in California, after saying he would be satisfied to gain 40 per cent of the Illinois popular vote and about one-sixth of the 96 nominating delegates at stake in the primary.

Ford concluded his personal campaigning Friday. His manager, former Gov. Richard B. Ogilvie, said the President would win by a 2-1 margin in the presidential preference vote, which is purely for show.

Ogilvie said he was aiming to win 80 of the 96 GOP delegates for Ford.

Former Georgia Gov. Jimmy Carter, who has won three of the four presidential primaries so far: Alabama Gov. George C. Wallace, Sargent Shriver, and former Oklahoma Sen. Fred R. Harris are the entries in the Democratic popularity contest.

But Daley, promoting delegate states committed to Sen. Adlai E. Stevenson III as a favorite son candidate, hopes to lead more than 100 of the state's 169 delegates when they go to New York City in July to choose a presidential nominee.

Whatever happens in Tuesday's election, the delegates will in fact be free to vote any way they want at the national convention. Under state law, they are not bound to back the candidate for whom they are listed on the ballot.

And for the Democrats who will be here long after the presidential parade has passed by, the real contest Tuesday was the primary battle between Gov. Daniel Walker and Secretary of State Michael Howlett, Daley's candidate for the governorship.

Wallace staged the most intensive of the campaign windup performances, with appearances slated today in Chicago and three other cities on the way to a final rally in Springfield.

Carter was appearing in Chicago, as was Shriver, a candidate in desperate need of a big showing to pull back from the brink of political collapse after fractional shares of the vote in the first four primary states.

Daley, a national Democratic power for two decades, lost his clout to reformers four years ago but was out to rebuild it in this campaign. He was virtually guaranteed command of 88 Chicago delegates and was backing candidates to expand his corps of national convention votes past the 100 mark.

Carter, Wallace and Walker, a Daley foe, all are trying to win delegates, too. Walker promoted uncommitted delegates as an alternative to those aligned with Daley. Shriver and Harris hoped to pick off at least a few of the convention delegates. Sen. Henry M. Jackson, winner in the Massachusetts presidential primary two weeks ago, bypassed the Illinois campaign.

Carter said on the CBS program "Face the Nation" Sunday that he hopes to run first in the preferential primary and capture at least 21 delegates.

Wallace, on the ABC program "Issues and Answers," said he expects to do well but declined to say what that means. He also said an Illinois defeat would not be fatal to his campaign, battered last Tuesday by Carter's upset victory in the Florida primary.

The Alabama governor said he thinks he'll have at least 400 nominating delegates when the Democrats convene next summer.

"I am not talking about striking a deal," he said. "I am interested in the party nominating someone like myself, getting back to looking after Middle Class America...."

He said he believes he can support the Democratic nominee — but then added that wouldn't necessarily apply to Rep. Morris K. Udall of Arizona. Udall has said he would bolt the Democratic party before he would support a Wallace ticket. Udall isn't running in Illinois.

HOPES TO MARRY: Tawny Elaine Godin, the current Miss America, said Sunday in New York, "I hope to get married as soon as possible after I give up my crown." Miss Godin, who called the lucky guy, Dr. Miles Little, 28, of Spartanburg, S.C., "The man of my dreams," got the ring last Tuesday and expects to make a formal announcement of the engagement in about a week. LIQUOR Sodus Man Appeals License Turndown

The Michigan Liquor Control commission will hear an appeal Tuesday by Bennie W. Dickerson, Townline road, in Sodus township, of an earlier decision denying him an SDD (hard liquor takeout) license.

The hearing is scheduled for 9:30 a.m. Tuesday at the commission headquarters in Lansing.

According to a commission announcement of the hearing, Dickerson's request for an SDD license in conjunction with an existing SDM (beer and wine takeout) license was denied on Jan. 18. It said the denial was based on the fact that a quota of one SDD license in Sodus township is already filled. The hearing on Dickerson's appeal will be confined solely to the quota and the mathematics involved, according to the commission announcement.

Dickerson operates a small grocery store on Townline road.

Taxpayers Are Faced With $80 Million Grain Subsidy

By G. DAVID WALLACE
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — American grain going to the Soviet Union this year will cost U.S. taxpayers about $80 million in subsidies for ship operators and workers, according to government estimates.

The subsidies will exceed those paid for carrying the grain sold to the Soviet Union in 1972.

The higher costs are due to a government program that assures U.S. vessels against loss if freight rates dip below operating costs and because of the terms of the U.S.-Soviet maritime agreement.

The Russian grain-trade ships aren't the only ones receiving subsidies for operating costs. As part of its program to encourage growth of the U.S. merchant marine, the Maritime Administration will pay a total of $403.7 million in 1977, including $53.4 million for the Soviet sales.

The subsidies make up the difference between the best rate U.S. ship operators can obtain from shippers and any operating costs in excess of those rates. The subsidy is supposed to make up for the higher costs of complying with U.S. ship regulations and higher wages of U.S. seamen.

The government estimates of $53.4 million in subsidies in 1977 for Russian grain-trade compares with the $29.4 million paid out in fiscal 1974, when most of the bills for shipping the 1972 sale came in. The rest of the $84.5 million estimated as the total cost for current shipments will come out of earlier budgets.

And with last year's U.S.-Soviet grain agreement committing the Soviets to buy six million metric tons of U.S. grain annually, officials in the Commerce Department's Maritime Administration estimate that grain subsidies will run at least $300 million a year over the five-year term of the pact.

The grain is shipped primarily in oil tankers. The big

What Is A Condominium

There are many advantages to owning a home, as soon as we mention (my husband, Ray, daughter, Tasha and I, Karen Mitchell) that we live in a condominium questions arise concerning what it is like.

We'd like to take this time to tell you about our home sweet home.

Tasha is overwhelmed by our big yard — across no less to romp in freedom. I enjoy her play fully knowing the traffic street is yards and yards away and she'll never have to cross it to play with her friends, gives me a secure feeling.

Ray enjoys the professional landscaping with full realization that after long hours at work he can come home, relax and not "have to" do the yard work.

All three of us get very excited over living so close to Lake Michigan. Our private inground pool covering thousands of sq. miles, also Tasha now has one of the world's biggest sand boxes. What more could a three year old want! Or a thirty year old for that matter!

I personally like the security of close neighbors, coupled with soundproof privacy. Living in a community where you can enjoy and know all of your neighbors not just the ones next door, is really a good feeling.

Ray appreciates the feeling of living in a Cadillac for a Chevrolet price. Let me make an important point here ladies. The floor plans are extremely efficient for furnishing arrangements and decorating ideas, the choice is all yours!

Ray also feels the investment value is an important asset, coupled with a quiet resort atmosphere and a true home life style.

The best way to experience what life is like in a condominium is to call Ray or any of our agents at Berrien Real Estate Service 983-1585. You can come out, look, feel, and experience a little of our way of living. If you like it, we'd love to have it your way too. Until then, love from our home to you.

Back, Leg Pain Needless Suffering, Doctor States

An estimated half million people will be disabled this year by spinal defects which cause low back and leg pain. We asked Dr. Vince Ackerman of The Ackerman Chiropractic Center what is being done to correct this "grave" problem. "Our research," says Dr. Ackerman, "indicates that most low back and associated leg pains are caused by truly mechanical defects in the alignment of one or more segments of the lower spine."

These spinal segments may be displaced, Dr. Ackerman indicates, by a fall, accident, or back strain. "Another frequent cause is chronic posture decay," he adds. "It's reasonably simple," he notes. "When a spinal segment is displaced the supporting muscles and ligaments may be stretched, or even causing acute and disabling back pain. When a segment is displaced beyond a critical point," Dr. Ackerman continues, "it partly closes the nerve openings between adjacent segments. The result is excruciating pain, which needless to say, is anything but reasonable."

Dr. Ackerman points out that the spinal nerves which supply the legs pass through the openings between adjacent segments of the lower spine. "You see, when one of the segments is displaced, the nerves to the legs might be pinched or irritated. This brings about the nerve pain that extends down the leg."

What can be done for the person with low back and associated leg pain? "My experience shows," says Dr. Ackerman, "that individuals with acute and chronic problems of this nature respond to chiropractic care. Our X-ray analysis can reveal even minute spinal distortions. And I might add," Dr. Ackerman says, "early detection of this problem allows effective care and prevention of progressive spinal defects."

Dr. Ackerman maintains that low back and leg pains often amount to needless suffering. "And let me say that I consider this needless suffering truly with out reason."

(Note more than 700 leading insurance companies recognize claims for modern care such as that available at the Ackerman Chiropractic Center, particularly for the specialized treatment for low back and leg pain as described above.)

Dr. Ackerman maintains offices at 3918 Red Arrow Hwy. St. Joseph (Telephone 428-1700.)

The grain is shipped primarily in oil tankers. The big ships are currently in excess supply worldwide, resulting in sharply depressed rates for ship operators. Rates have plunged since the final shipments of the 1972 purchase cost the Soviets $31 a ton, which was above the point where U.S. subsidies kick in.

But now the Soviet Union is paying $16 a ton for the grain shipped in U.S. vessels. Commerce Department officials estimate that means the U.S. government is footing subsidies running about $10 a ton.

most low back and associated leg pains are caused by truly mechanical defects in the alignment of one or more segments of the lower spine."

These spinal segments may be displaced, Dr. Ackerman indicates, by a fall, accident, or back strain. "Another frequent cause is chronic posture decay," he adds. "It's reasonably simple," he notes. "When a spinal segment is displaced the supporting muscles and ligaments may be stretched or torn causing acute and disabling back pain. When a segment is displaced beyond a critical point," Dr. Ackerman continues, "it partly closes the nerve openings between adjacent segments. The result is excruciating pain, which needless to say, is anything but reasonable."

Dr. Ackerman points out that the spinal nerves which supply the legs pass through the openings between adjacent segments of the lower spine. "You see, when one of the segments is displaced, the nerves to the legs might be pinched or irritated. This brings about the nerve pain that extends down the leg."

What can be done for the person with low back and associated leg pain? "My experience shows," says Dr. Ackerman, "that individuals with acute and chronic problems of this nature respond to chiropractic care. Our X-ray analysis can reveal even minute spinal distortions. And I might add," Dr. Ackerman says, "early detection of this problem allows effective care and prevention of progressive spinal defects."

Dr. Ackerman maintains that low back and leg pains often amount to needless suffering. "And let me say that I consider this needless suffering truly with out reason."

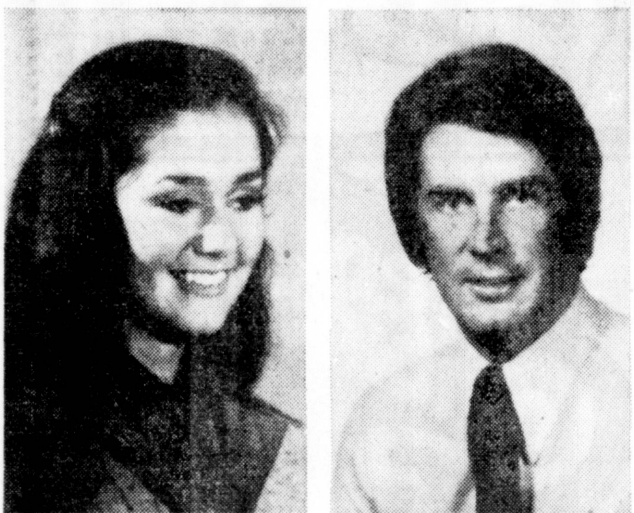

(Note more than 700 leading insurance companies recognize claims for modern care such as that available at the Ackerman Chiropractic Center, particularly for the specialized treatment for low back and leg pain as described above.)

HOPES TO MARRY: Tawny Elaine Godin, the current Miss America, said Sunday in New York, "I hope to get married as soon as possible after I give up my crown." Miss Godin, who called the lucky guy, Dr. Miles Little, 28, of Spartanburg, S.C., "The man of my dreams," got the ring last Tuesday and expects to make a formal announcement of the engagement in about a week. Sodus Man Appeals License Turndown

The Michigan Liquor Control commission will hear an appeal Tuesday by Bennie W. Dickerson, Townline road, in Sodus township, of an earlier decision denying him an SDD (hard liquor takeout) license.

The hearing is scheduled for 9:30 a.m. Tuesday at the commission headquarters in Lansing.

According to a commission announcement of the hearing, Dickerson's request for an SDD license in conjunction with an existing SDM (beer and wine takeout) license was denied on Jan. 19. It said the denial was based on the fact that a quota of one SDD license in Sodus township is already filled. The hearing on Dickerson's appeal will be confined solely to the quota and the mathematics involved, according to the commission announcement.

Dickerson operates a small grocery store on Townline road.

What Is A Condominium

There are many advantages to owning a home, as soon as we mention (my husband, Ray, daughter, Tasha and I, Karen Mitchell) that we live in a condominium questions arise concerning what is it like.

We'd like to take this time to tell you about our home sweet home.

Tasha is overwhelmed by our big yard — acres no less to romp in freedom. I enjoy her play fully knowing the traffic street is yards and yards away and she'll never have to cross it to play with her friends, gives me a secure feeling.

Ray enjoys the professional landscaping with full realization that after long hours at work he can come home, relax and not "have to" do the yard work.

All three of us get very excited over living so close to Lake Michigan. Our private inground pool covering thousands of sq. miles, also Tasha now has one of the world's biggest sand boxes. What more could a three year old want! Or a thirty year old for that matter!

I personally like the security of close neighbors, coupled with soundproof privacy. Living in a community where you can enjoy and know all of your neighbors not just the ones next door, is really a good feeling.

Ray appreciates the feeling of living in a Cadillac for a Chevrolet price. Let me make an important point here ladies. The floor plans are extremely efficient for furnishing arrangements and decorating ideas, the choice is all yours!

Ray also feels the investment value is an important asset, coupled with a quiet resort atmosphere and a true home life style.

The best way to experience what life is like in a condominium is to call Ray or any of our agents at Berrien Real Estate Service 983-1585. You can come out, look, feel, and experience a little of our way of living. If you like it, we'd love to have it your way too. Until then, love from our home to you.

SADAT TAKES HARD LINE

Russ-Egypt Friendship 'Off'

CAIRO (AP) — The Soviet Union has suffered another setback in the Middle East with President Anwar Sadat's announcement that he is tearing up the 1971 Soviet-Egyptian treaty of friendship and cooperation.

The Egyptian People's Assembly meets this afternoon to to bow to their demands, something that I will not do. "All the Soviet arms in Egypt, including aircraft, will become mere scrap in a year or 18 months" because the Soviets refuse to supply spare parts.

"In view of all this the treaty has become a scrap of paper and I propose its cancellation," he said.

The Egyptian president said the Soviets "rejected and condemned" his participation in Kissinger's negotiations for Arab-Israeli peace but "whether we like it or not, whether the Soviet Union is angry about this or not, the fact is that 99 per cent of the cards are in the hands of the United States."

"The United States changed its policy ... and moved away from its total bias for Israel."

Should I have rejected this, and for whose benefit?"

Sadat said the Soviet Union disapproved of his relaxing restrictions on private foreign investors to improve the Egyptian economy and "considered it a deviation from the Egyptian socialist revolution."

"They don't want to help us and at the same time they don't want to see us develop."

Detroit Students Leave

DETROIT (AP) — A total of 697 students have left the Detroit public school system to avoid a court-ordered desegregation plan, Detroit school officials reported. The report showed that 730 whites and 167 blacks have shifted to private or suburban schools or are simply staying out. The report was sent to members of the Detroit Board of Education this week. It was compiled by the Detroit school system's attendance officers. The parents of every student listed on the school rolls but not attending classes by Feb. 20 was contacted by an attendance officer. The report's findings: 329 whites and 36 blacks transferred to private or parochial schools; 138 whites and 28 blacks have moved out of the city or are living with relatives outside the city to attend suburban schools; 282 whites and 103 blacks are being held out of school by their parents. Parents holding their children out of school are in violation of the state's compulsory school attendance law which applies to every child between six and 18.

Among the results could be an end to the use of Egyptian ports by Soviet naval ships and competition by the United States, Britain and France to supply the arms Egypt can no longer get from the Soviet Union.

There was no immediate reaction from Moscow. But the controlled Soviet press has long been critical of Sadat's cooperation with Secretary of State Henry A. Kissinger's negotiations to foster peace between the Arabs and Israel.

Arson Called Michigan's Fastest-Growing Crime

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

The number of arson cases in Michigan has nearly doubled in the past five years, according to state Fire Marshal William Rucinski.

Rucinski said over the weekend that arson is the fastest growing criminal enterprise in the state.

"No other area of crime comes close to the rate of increase in arson," said Rucinski.

In 1975, there were 5,500 fires listed as arson, compared to 3,200 cases in 1970, said Rucinski.

Statewide dollar losses are not available for arson, but in Detroit alone the price tag is $5.5 million, says Capt. Charles R. Craft, chief of the fire department's arson squad.

Craft said at least half of the loss was traced to fires set to defraud insurance companies.

Elsewhere, the state fire marshal said the sharpest increase in the number of arson fires outside Detroit was reported in three cities — Saginaw, Flint and Grand Rapids.

"In Saginaw, for instance, there was a 46 per cent increase in fire losses due to arson last year compared to 1974," said Rucinski.

About two-thirds of the arson cases in Michigan last year were in the suburbs and outstate. Arson in the suburbs most often involved commercial buildings, said Joseph Roberts of the Metropolitan Detroit Loss Bureau.

The Detroit suburbs of Royal Oak, Ferndale and Oak Park were three spots where the incidence of arson rose sharply, said Roberts.

"The area is ripe for arson because of the declining shopping centers and strip business areas," said Roberts.

TWINS 'TYPICAL': Clara and Alta Rodriguez, Siamese twins separated in an operation in Philadelphia in 1974, are typical 2-year-olds who bite, yell and scream, said Dr. Louise Schnauffer, who visited them recently in Dominican Republic. Police Seeking Drivers Who Ignored Girl's Body

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

Police theorize that at least a dozen persons saw the nude body of a 16-year-old Roseville girl on a suburban Detroit road last January, but none of them ever bothered to call authorities.

Bloomfield Township police also said Sunday that a passing motorist actually moved the body of Cynthia Carieux at least 18 inches along the snow-covered road a short time after it was dumped there. Police said the motorist never contacted authorities and the person has not yet come forward.

The Roseville High School junior was dumped on Franklin Road near Pickering shortly before midnight on Jan. 16 after being sexually assaulted and killed. A postmortem examination showed she had been beaten on the head with a blunt instrument.

"We'd like to talk with anyone who saw anything that night," said Bloomfield Township Detective Wally Quarles. "We know people saw the girl's body on the street."

The man who discovered the body told police he stopped his car and attempted to flag down a young woman driving by, but the woman sped on.

Quarles said police are convinced someone attempted to move the body because of the way the snow was on the road.

"Maybe it was a passing motorist who thought it was a drunk girl lying in the road," said Quarles. "Perhaps whoever it was got out of a car and pulled on her arm trying to wake her up before discovering she was dead. Now they don't want to get involved."

U.P., State Votes Eyed On Navy Seafarer Project

By MARY STEVENSON
Associated Press Writer
LANSING, Mich. (AP) — Debate on a possible referendum concerning Project Seafarer is scheduled in the House this week, and where to hold the vote will be a main issue.

Rep. Dominic Jacobetti, D-Negunee, is sponsor of a two-bill package authorizing a referendum if the U.S. Navy indicates plans to use either the Upper or Lower Peninsula as a site for the highly controversial, underground communications project.

Seafarer, a proposed massive radio antenna system, would be used to communicate with submarines on patrol beneath the sea.

Questions have been raised about the project's impact on land, environment and people.

Although the Upper Peninsula has been mentioned as a possible location, the Defense Department says Michigan is not yet a final candidate site, with Nevada and New Mexico potential locations, too. Defense has told Gov. William Milliken that without his approval, Michigan will not become a candidate site.

Jacobetti's legislation provides that if the Navy indicates plans to install the project anywhere in Michigan, then the counties directly involved will hold a referendum on the question May 18 during the presidential primary.

Rep. Perry Bullard, D-Ann Arbor, has introduced an amendment that would allow voters throughout the entire state to vote on the question, regardless of whether their area was directly affected.

"Some counties in the Lower Peninsula are actually closer to the (proposed) grid area than are some of the Upper Peninsula counties," Bullard said.

The bill came up for debate when the House met in an unusual Friday session to catch up on its work. Because Jacobetti was absent, consideration was postponed until this week.

The Senate, meanwhile, is scheduled to start discussing a bill which would use certain royalties from gas and oil production to acquire land for public use.

"The bill would tag royalties from expanded drilling in the Pigeon River Country State Forest in Northern Lower Michigan for a 'state recreational land acquisition trust fund.' This fund would be used to purchase available land for public recreation.

The Natural Resources Commission is scheduled to decide this spring whether to permit expanded drilling in the wilderness area.

Storm-Battered Trees Can Thrive

By SUSAN AGER
Associated Press Writer
EAST LANSING, Mich. (AP) — These trees may be battered and bruised from ice and high winds, but proper care can keep them thriving, says Mel Koelling, Michigan State University forestry professor. Any broken branch must be cut off, using a fine-toothed saw, at the point where it attaches to a larger limb or trunk, Koelling said. Split branches must also be cut because borers can find their way into the splits and eventually weaken a tree's structure by tunneling through its wood, Koelling said. A bore-filled tree is likely to tumble in high winds, he said. If the open wound left after cutting the branch is two inches or more in diameter, it should be painted over with orange shellac, which acts as both an antiseptic and as a sealer against infection. When dry, that shellac should be topped with a coat of pine tar or pruning paint. Major injuries, like a split in a tree's fork, will need the help of professional tree service company which can force the split closed and secure it shut with cables or rods. While cutting damaged branches, it's good to try to balance the shape of the tree by cutting off opposite branches as well, Koelling said.

Foster Care Location Bills Eyed

LANSING, Mich. (AP) — A state legislative committee is slated to consider on Tuesday a package of bills easing the restrictions on the location of foster care homes for adult mental patients.

Some officials and neighborhood groups in Detroit have protested the proposed changes, claiming older residential areas could become concentrations of foster care homes.

Supporters of the bills say the changes are necessary so the state can find enough locations for the foster care homes needed.

The five bills, scheduled for debate and vote before the House Towns and Counties Committee, propose to make the following changes:

—Foster care homes housing fewer than seven patients would be permitted to locate in areas now zoned for single-family residential.

—Homes with up to 12 patients would be allowed to locate in areas now zoned for apartment use.

—The concentration of homes in residential neighborhoods would be prohibited by requiring that a new home could not be established within 1,200 feet of an existing foster care home.

—Local governments would be given additional control over the homes' physical condition by enabling cities to challenge a home's license if the facility were not run properly.

Mel Ravitz, head of the Wayne County Community Mental Health program and former city council president, supports the bills.

Ravitz says that until now, local zoning has been effective mainly in keeping the homes out of the suburbs and inside Detroit.

"At least this bill would open an opportunity to have some of these homes located elsewhere than in Detroit," Ravitz said. "If the bill is not passed, Detroit will be even worse off."

Opponents of the foster care program charge that the state is dumping mental patients into the cities, often in poorly run homes with inadequate care.

William Deane Smith, deputy director of the Community and Economic Development Department, said the continued location of the foster care homes in Detroit, especially in single-family neighborhoods, will have a devastating effect on the city.

"Quite simply, it will mean the destruction of some neighborhoods, for one," Smith said.

"For another, the city will have to spread even thinner the services — health and police, for example — that such additional facilities will require.

"If we are having difficulty marketing the housing and neighborhoods in Detroit, and we are, this would run any chances to improve it," Smith said.

Time Nearing For Right-On-Red

LANSING — On and after March 31, motorists in Michigan will be able to turn right on a red light.

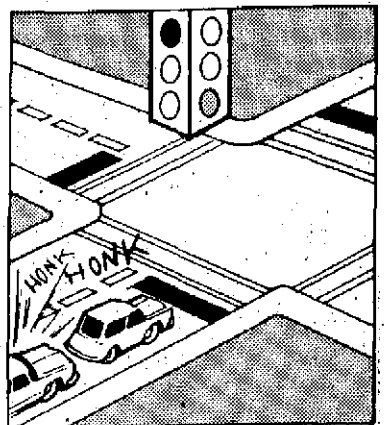

That's the date Michigan's "right-turn-on-red" law becomes effective.

The law, enacted last December by the Michigan Legislature, provides that after coming to a full stop, a motorist may turn right on a red light when vehicular and pedestrian traffic clears — unless the turn is specifically prohibited by a sign posted at the intersection.

Previously, motorists could turn right on red only if permitted by flashing red arrows on traffic signals at the intersection. Under the new law, flashing red arrows will be eliminated.

In addition to right turns on red, the new law permits left turns on red only one-way streets, after a stop, when traffic clears.

The New Michigan "turn-on-red" Law

Michigan's turn-on-red law effective April 1 does not require motorists to do so, unless in a designated turn lane. Automobile Club of Michigan advises drivers stopped behind non-turning motorists to be courteous since horn-blowing results in confusion. Unless prohibited by signage, the new law always allows right turns on red, but left turns on red only onto one-way streets.

License Plate Lines Grow Longer!

LANSING — Owners of passenger cars and motorcycles must have their 1976 plates on their vehicles by April 1.

"The Department opened this bi-centennial plate year with the biggest sales in its history. Sales continue briskly but there are always those who for various reasons tend to wait until the last minute. We would like more of them to buy earlier," Secretary of State Richard H. Austin said.

There's not much doubt about the popularity of the 1976 tri-color plates. As of March 2, nearly 600,000 more had been sold than in 1975.

Total sales processed numbered 3,275,000, a projected half-million in various stages of processing, the total would be about 3.7-million before mid-March. This means that nearly 1.5-million vehicle owners will have to fight those last-minute lines in late March.

At the close of the so-called "rush period" in 1975, some 5.4-million tabs were sold.

Austin had these reminders for buyers when they obtain their plates. Please bring:

1. The prepared license plate application mailed to you last Fall;
2. Proof of no-fault auto insurance; and
3. Check, money order or cash to pay for the plates.

Persons who do not have their prepared license plate application must either prove ownership by bringing in their title OR last year's registration. Of course, they still need proof of insurance and money for the transaction.

Mail sales are over. Indications are that Michigan will top its previous high total of 805,000 said last year.

BICENTENNIAL FACTS

IRON BALLS held together in a rack or bag that scattered when discharged from a cannon were called grape, or grapeshot, during the Revolutionary War. Differing from cannister only in that the balls are much larger and less effective against personnel, grape was designed for fire against enemy gun batteries, ships and fortifications. The World Almanac reports.

Crews Begin Sealing Mine

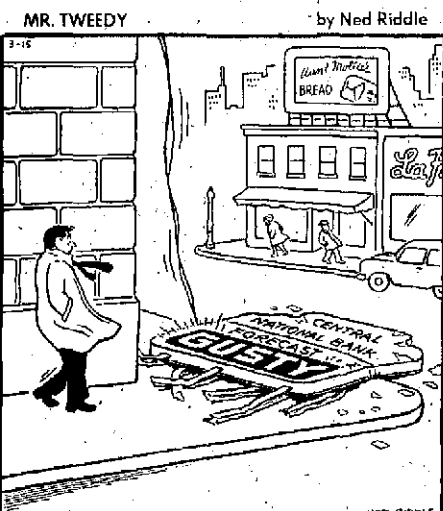

OVEN FORK, Ky. (AP) —

Work crews today begin sealing a Southeast Kentucky coal mine in which 20 men died last week in two underground explosions.

It could mean the loss of jobs for several hundred miners who worked in the Scotia Coal Company's No. 1 Black Mountain mine and two others. The other two mines are being shut temporarily so damage can be checked and methane gas levels monitored.

Company officials have said Scotia employs about 500 persons, some 225 of them working in the No. 1 mine.

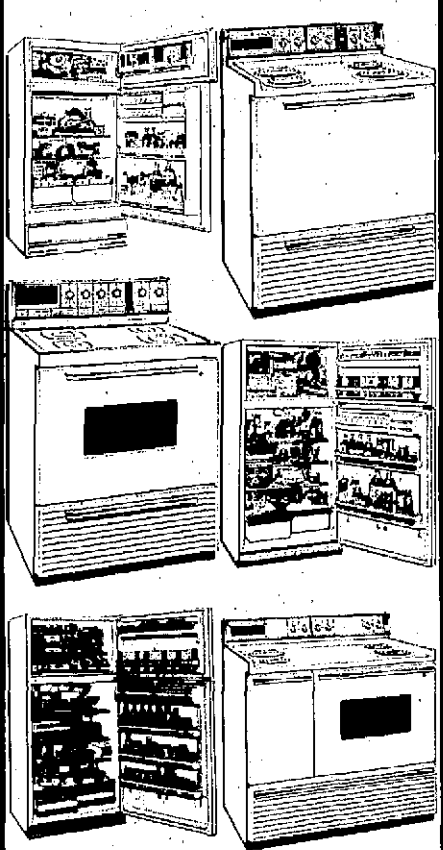

Federal and state officials estimate the No. 1 mine will be closed at least two or three months, until the cause of last week's explosions can be determined and the danger of future explosions eliminated.

The Hammond Dolphin... the NEW Hammond Dolphin... the organ you and your family have needed to get involved with for a long time. It makes the most of every finger you own, with results so good it makes it sound as if you have ten fingers on each hand! The Dolphin's Auto Vari 28 is a people pleaser — 7 rhythm patterns (and 4 variations of each) — make it easy for everyone to play, and the young cats really dig the Dolphin's polyphonic synthesizer. Time Nearing For Right-On-Red LANSING — On and after March 31, motorists in Michigan will be able to turn right on a red light.

That's the date Michigan's "right - turn - on - red" law becomes effective.

The law, enacted last December by the Michigan Legislature, provides that after coming to a full stop, a motorist may turn right on a red light when vehicular and pedestrian traffic clears — unless the turn is specifically prohibited by a sign posted at the intersection.

Previously, motorists could turn right on red only if permitted by flashing red arrows on traffic signals at the intersection. Under the new law, flashing red arrows will be eliminated.

In addition to right turns on red, the new law permits left turns on red onto one-way streets, after a stop, when traffic clears.

Right turns on red are now permitted in many states in the interests of saving time, conserving fuel and reducing traffic congestion at intersections.

The new law permits motorists to make turns on red at approximately 1,600 of the 1,850 signalized intersections of the state's 9,300-mile highway system. Right turns on red will be specifically banned by overhead signs on the remainder. Approximately 800 signs reading "No Turn On Red" will be posted at these intersections.

Factors on whether to permit right turns on red include numbers of pedestrians using the intersection, speed of traffic, existing types of traffic controls and complexity of intersection traffic.

In addition to state highways, several thousand traffic signals on city streets and county roads will be affected by the new law.

To prepare for the change, the Department of State Highways and Transportation is erecting "No Turn On Red" signs at signalized intersections where turns on red will be prohibited, ahead of the March 31 date, wherever practical.

The New Michigan "turn-on-red" Law

Michigan's turn - on - red - light law effective April 1 does not require motorists to do so, unless in a designated turn lane. Automobile Club of Michigan advises drivers stopped behind non-turning motorists to be courteous since horn-blowing results in confusion. Unless prohibited by signing, the new law always allows right turns on red but left turns on red only onto one-way streets.

License Plate Lines Grow Longer!

LANSING — Owners of passenger cars and motorcycles must have their 1976 plates on their vehicles by April 1.

"The Department opened this bicentennial plate year with the biggest sales in its history. Sales continue briskly but there are always those who for various reasons tend to wait until the last minute. We would like more of them to buy earlier," Secretary of State Richard H. Austin said.

There's not much doubt about the popularity of the 1976 tri-color plates. As of March 2, nearly 600,000 more had been sold than in 1975.

Total sales processed numbered 3,275,000, a projected half-million in various stages of processing, the total would be about 3.7-million before mid-March. This means that nearly 1.5-million vehicle owners will have to fight those last-minute lines in late March.

At the close of the so-called "rush period" in 1975, some 5.4-million tabs were sold.

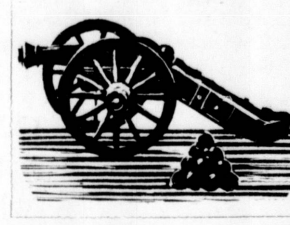

Austin had these reminders for buyers when they obtain their plates. Please bring: ...

1. The prepared license plate application mailed to you last Fall;
2. Proof of no-fault auto insurance; and
3. Check, money order or cash to pay for the plates.

Persons who do not have their prepared license plate application must either prove ownership by bringing in their title OR last year's registration. Of course, they still need proof of insurance and money for the transaction.

Mail sales are over. Indications, are that Michigan will top its previous high total of 805,000 sold last year.

BICENTENNIAL FACTS

IRON BALLS held together in a rack or bag that scattered when discharged from a cannon were called grape, or grapeshot, during the Revolutionary War. Differing from cannister only in that the balls are much larger and less effective against personnel, grape was designed for fire against enemy gun batteries, ships and fortifications. The World Almanac reports.

Here's JFK Dating Try That Bombed

Q: Isn't there any woman who had the courage to say "No" to President Kennedy? — U.W., Greenville, Miss.

A: We have heard that when Kennedy was a senator he saw Joanne Woodward in a film and asked Gore Vidal (with whom he was then friendly) if he might arrange a meeting. Gore had dated Joanne briefly before she married Paul Newman. Aware of JFK's charisma, Vidal told the Senator to forget about Joanne because she was too much in love with her husband. Who knows? If it hadn't been for Vidal, Paul Newman might be a Republican today.

Q: Does Ali MacGraw's ex-husband Bob Evans have any interest in his son? How old is the boy now? — S.S., Santa Barbara, Calif.

A: Evans adores Jason who is

5 and takes care of him every weekend. Friends say that if he'd paid as much attention to Ali when they were married as he does to the little boy, Steve McQueen wouldn't have had a chance.

Q: Some racing fan told me that Red Steiger has made a lot of money from a horse he owns. — F.P., Concord, N.H.

A: Steiger bought a horse named Stained Glass for $3,000 that has already won $100,000 in purses. The horse beat Telly Savalas' nag named Telly's Pop. And that was pretty sad because Telly gave all his pals a $50 win ticket on the horse as a gift and the horse came in second.

Howard Hughes. Hughes subscribes to a clipping service in Kansas City with branches everywhere. So far, 28 rooms

Q: What no one seems to explain is why Cher jumped so frantically from Sonny to Dave Geffen and then to Gregg Allman. Why didn't she take things a little slower? — B.K., Baton Rouge, La.

A: Cher has one problem that she apparently can't work out. That's an inability to be by herself. In addition to always having a man at her side, she goes from place to place with an enormous entourage which is there not only for business reasons but also to keep Cher from being alone.

Q: How come everyone thought that Henry Winkler, Fozzie from the TV program "Happy Days," was dead. I know you printed that it wasn't true but I'm curious as to how the story got started. — R.N., Brooklyn, N.Y.

A: One interesting explanation from P.G. in Sequim, Washington. P.G. says she was discussing the rumor with her children when on TV came the words in big letters "THE WRINKLER IS DEAD" and then continued on as an ad for an iron. That might have planted the idea that started the whole silly rumor. Thanks, P.G.

STEIGER: His nag beat Telly's.

EVANS: All's 'ex' loves the boy.

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (AP) — Commissioner Bowie Kuhn is expected to step in today and order the opening of baseball's spring training camps while negotiations continue between club owners and the Players Association over a new labor contract.

"I can't offer you a hard date, whether it is Monday or Tuesday, but we will have baseball on and time," Kuhn said Sunday in a surprise appearance at the hotel where negotiations are taking place.

Despite Kuhn's optimism, the negotiators issued four rejections at the end of the 28th negotiating session.

"We're a long way from having the key to the padlock," said John Gaherin, the chief negotiator for the owners.

"There is no drastic change at all," said Gaherin. "We're still

Marvin Miller, executive director of the Players Association, agreed with Gaherin. Miller indicated, however, that the owners were stonewalling until a specific time, and then would break the impasse.

A management source told The Associated Press that the owners' deadline was Monday, probably before nightfall. That would open the camps Tuesday and give teams three weeks to get ready for the April 8 openers.

Kuhn was asked about the Monday deadline and replied: "I hope so ... But there is a difference of opinion among owners on how much time is needed for preparations."

The commissioner has the power to open the camps for the best interest of baseball. The league presidents, Club Feeney of the National and Lee MacPhail of the American, also could issue the order if they felt enough progress was being made at the negotiating table.

The thorny problem of the reserve clause still confronted the negotiators. The owners want a player tied to a club — unless traded, sold or released — for nine years. The Players Association is willing to settle for a six-year reserve clause. The players, under an arbitrator's decision subsequently upheld by two federal courts, legally could become free agents in two years under the controversial one-and-one option ruling.

Killam, however, took the play away from the tense negotia-

Gahrin, his Management Players Relation Committee. Miller and nine players worked at the problem for 7 1/2 hours Sunday. Included among the players present were Tom Seaver, the pitching ace of the New York Mets; Pittsburgh Pirates slugger Willie Stargell; Lou Brock and Reggie Smith of the St. Louis Cardinals, and catcher Bob Boone of the Philadelphia Phillies.

WATERVLIET — It was just another one of those "David and Goliath" stories here Saturday night.

Only this one had a different ending. Kurt Wiese helped Decatur's giant killers win a battle or two. But in the end it was Buchanan's unbeaten and top-ranked Bucks who won the war.

Wiese poured in 32 points, but Buchanan fought off Decatur's challenge 76-57 to win the Class C regional championship before an overflow crowd of more than 3,000 fans here.

The 6-1 junior guard swished 14 of 28 from the floor, using a mixture of 15-foot jump shots and driving layups, and added four of five free throw attempts.

But not even he was enough to keep Decatur from becoming the Bucks' 25th straight victim this season.

"Our feeling was that one guy isn't going to beat five," Buchanan coach Bill Wilson said. "He's a good basketball player, but since he had to bring the ball down the floor, run the offense and be the offense it's amazing the kid held up. We decided to give him his 30 points and hold the rest of the team down."

That Buchanan did in posting its first regional championship since 1955. Jim Overley was the only other Raider to hit for double figures with 11. Steve Greenwyck, who tossed in 20 points against Kalamazoo Hackett last Tuesday, was held to just two free throws. The other two starters, Jeff Vitek and Matt Leighton, failed to even take a shot.

Michigan Nips Wichita State

DENTON, Tex. (AP) — Johnny Orr knows how it feels to get those last-second slams between the eyes.

The Michigan coach was as sympathetic as could be for Wichita State's gallant Shockers Saturday night after Ricky Green's 20-foot jumper with six seconds left sent the Wolverines into the NCAA Midwest Regional semifinals 73-71.

But Orr quickly added: "I don't feel bad about the way we won it because we lost games to Illinois and Indiana like that

Orr admitted that the unranked Sluckers (18-10) played the 14th-ranked Wolverines off their feet for the first 20 minutes, adding, "It was a great comeback. We just decided to go to a man-in-man press, put four little guys in there and just suck it up. We were fortunate. I know it was a heart-breaking loss for Wichita this year."

Michigan, the Big Ten runner-up to No. 1-ranked Indiana, will tackle Notre Dame at Louisville, Ky., Thursday night. In the other game, Texas Tech, the Southwest Conference representative which destroyed independent Syracuse 49-50.

"We're elated to be playing Notre Dame," said Orr. "We certainly ought to know enough about them. We see 'em on television all the time. Of course, Adrian Dantley is a great one."

Texas Tech upped its season record to 25-5 with a surprisingly easy victory over Syracuse, which finished the year 20-9.

Bowie Kuhn Is Opening Baseball Training Camps

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (AP) — Commissioner Bowie Kuhn is expected to step in today and order the opening of baseball's spring training camps while negotiations continue between club owners and the Players Association over a new labor contract.

"I can't offer you a hard date, whether it is Monday or Tuesday, but we will have baseball on time," Kuhn said Sunday in a surprise appearance at the hotel where negotiations are taking place.

Despite Kuhn's optimism, the negotiators issued dour reports at the end of the 29th negotiating session.

"We're a long way from having the key to the padlock," said John Gaherin, the chief negotiator for the owners.

"There is no drastic change at all," said Gaherin. "We're still confronted with the same problems at the same dimensions."

Marvin Miller, executive director of the Players Association, agreed with Gaherin. Miller indicated, however, that the owners were stonewalling until a specific time, and then would break the impasse.

A management source told The Associated Press that the owners' deadline was Monday, probably before nightfall. That would open the camps Tuesday and give teams three weeks to get ready for the April 8 openers.

Kuhn was asked about the Monday deadline and replied: "I hope so ... But there is a difference of opinion among owners on how much time is needed for preparations."

The players, under an arbitrator's decision subsequently upheld by two federal courts, legally could become free agents in two years under the controversial one-and-one option ruling.

Kuhn, however, took the play away from the tense negotiating scene. Casually attired in a yellow sport shirt and red sweater, he indicated that he came to Florida to help break the impasse.

"When I think opening the camps will help bargaining, I will open them," he declared. "I don't think that anyone takes seriously the thought that there will be no baseball."

Gaherin, his Management Players Relation Committee, Miller and nine players worked at the problem for 7½ hours Sunday. Included among the players present were Tom Seaver, the pitching ace of the New York Mets; Pittsburgh Pirates slugger Willie Stargell; Lou Brock and Reggie Smith of the St. Louis Cardinals; and catcher Bob Boone of the Philadelphia Phillies.

Buchanan advances to Thursday's Class C quarterfinal contest at Middleville-Thornapple Kellogg high school against Shelby (20-5). Decatur, which had a 17-game winning streak snapped, bowed out of the tourney with a 22-3 mark.

"I'm proud of this team," Decatur coach Tom Gibson said. "We have no reason to hang our heads. We had them playing our game in the first half. In the third quarter we made some mistakes and you can't make mistakes against a team like Buchanan."

Wiese kept the Raiders in the game for almost three quarters, but in the end it was costly Decatur turnovers and a strong second-half Buchanan effort which made the difference.

Decatur, which trailed just 29-24 at halftime, turned the ball over 14 times in the second half and finished with 26 turnovers for the game. Buchanan, which turned the ball over just 15 times, blistered the nets on 22 of 36 from the floor in the second half (61 per cent) and outrebounded the Raiders 19-11.

Ken Garrett offset part of Wiese's production with a 27-point outburst of his own, 19 coming in the decisive second half. Walt Vanderbush added 14 while dishing out seven assists. Mike Busby tossed in 12 points and his brother Gerald had 11.

Wiese scored 28 of his 32 points in the first 23 minutes of the game to keep Decatur within striking distance at 47-40 with just over a minute left in the third quarter. But when the 6-1 junior ran out of gas, so did the Raider upset hopes.

"Without a doubt Kurt tired in the fourth quarter," Gibson said. "He still gave it his all. Our game plan originally was not to go to Kurt as much as we did. But it was the only thing that worked in the second half."

"I told Kurt to bring the ball down the floor and if he had the shot to take it. If he didn't, to set it up."

In the end Buchanan's size finally began to take its toll. Buchanan, which averaged more than a four-inch height advantage per man, dominated the backboard in the second half Michigan is now 22-6 for the year.

Texas Tech upped its season record to 25-5 with a surprisingly easy victory over Syracuse, which finished the year 20-9.

Tech's Mike Russell, a sophomore from Buffalo, N.Y., and senior Rick Bullock dominated the smaller Orangemen on the boards at both ends of the court. Russell scored 21 points before he fouled out and Bullock added 19.

Ironically, Russell tied for high point honors with Syracuse's Jimmy "The Bug" Williams, who played on the same high school team with Russell.

Russell shook hands with every Syracuse player and Orangemen coach Roy Danforth when he fouled out "because I'm kind of sentimental about the school. I was going to go there with Jimmy but things just didn't work out."

It was a prestigious victory for the SWC, which felt regular season champion Texas A&M also should have been invited to the NCAA playoffs.

"Texas Tech has one fine club and will do well in the regionals," said Danforth. "That stuff about them not playing good basketball down here is a bunch of bunk."

Tech Coach Gerald Myers said, "I think we have three or four teams in our conference which could have done well in this game tonight. Our league has improved. When we do well out on the court, it means more to our conference than just talking about how we've improved."

Myers said he didn't know much about Missouri except "they are tough. They have good guards."

Bronco Rally Stops Virginia Tech In OT

SOUTH BEND, Ind. (AP) — Western Michigan was introduced to National Collegiate Athletic Association basketball tournament action Saturday.

And the Broncos made a favorable impression on everyone except Virginia Tech, defeating the Gobblers 77-67 in overtime.

Jeff Tyson tied the game with 40 seconds left in regulation and added five points in overtime as 16th-ranked Western rallied for the victory in the first round of NCAA Midwest Regional basketball action.

It is the first time the Broncos have appeared in an NCAA basketball tournament. They now advance to the regional finals at Louisiana State Thursday.

Tyson finished with 25 points in a game which saw Western Michigan fall behind by as many as 13 points in the first half.

"They just outplayed us in the first half," said Tyson. "They outshot us. We couldn't get into it at all."

Virginia Tech's Gobblers saw their lead whittled away in the closing minutes of the second period, then were held to just two points in the overtime.

"Without a doubt, that was the greatest game we've played all year," said WMU coach Eldon Miller. It is his team's 25th victory in 27 games.

Tyson, a 6-foot-3 senior, brought the Broncos within two points, 63-61, with three minutes remaining. After an exchange of baskets, Tyson then sent the game into overtime at 65-61.

In the overtime, two free throws by junior Tom Cutler gave Western its first lead since midway through the opening half, and five unanswered points by Tyson iced the game.

The only basket by Virginia Tech in overtime was by Russell Davis with 1:20 remaining. Tyson said Virginia Tech was aggressive in the first half.

"I think I got a little intimidated," Tyson said later. "Everytime I'd go up, (Larry) Cook would go behind me and swat the ball and my hand as I took the shot. It got so that everytime I shot, I got to looking for somebody to swat me."

Virginia Tech, finishing at 21-7, was led by reserve Duke Thorpe with 19 points and Davis with 16.

Tech, which trailed the first 11 minutes of the game, turned it around with three straight baskets by Thorpe and a 20-foot jumper by Cooke which gave the Gobblers their first lead, 21-20.

A free throw by Thorpe, a basket by Davis on a rebound of Thorpe's missed second free throw attempt and another long jumper by Cooke pushed Tech's lead to six as the Broncos' shooting went cold.

The Gobblers steadily widened the lead to 39-26 as Western managed only six points in a 10½ minute span before freshman Marty Murray canned two jump shots from the corner in the final minutes before intermission.

The Broncos pulled within three points in the first four minutes of the second half. But the Gobblers scored the next eight points and maintained leads of six to eight points until the rally, led by Tyson, tied the game in the final minutes.

Notre Dame Faces Michigan In Tourney Thursday

Knight's Tip Bucket Keeps Irish Alive

From ASSOCIATED PRESS
Ah, yes. The luck of the Irish. That's just what Notre Dame needed Saturday to edge Cincinnati 79-78 and keep its NCAA title hopes alive.

The luck came in the form of Toby Knight, who tipped in a missed shot with just two seconds left to give Notre Dame the win.

The seventh-ranked Irish trailed No. 15 Cincinnati almost the entire game, despite 27 points from Adrian Dantley. The Irish were behind by eight with little more than eight minutes to play.

But paced by Duck Williams, who finished with 22 points,

Notre Dame three times trimmed the deficit to one, the last at 78-77 on a Williams' basket with 12 seconds left.

Each team then took a timeout. Bearcat senior Hal Ward was handed the ball by referee Hank Nichols under the basket at which the Irish were shooting.

Ward got it in once, but the Irish deflected it out. Again it was the Bearcats' ball, this time with just eight seconds left.

This time, however, Ward failed to get the ball inbounds in the allotted five seconds and it was Notre Dame's ball with still eight seconds left.

The ball came in to Bill Paterno, who fired up a 20-footer with four seconds left. The ball hit the rim and came off, but Knight tipped it back in for the win. The clock ran out before Cincinnati could call timeout.

Alabama registered the school's first-ever triumph in the National Collegiate Athletic Association basketball tournament Saturday, knocking off fifth-ranked North Carolina 79-64.

That sends the Crimson Tide on to the next round of the talent-laden Midwest Regionals at Baton Rouge, La., where waiting in the wings is none other than unbeaten, No. 1-ranked Indiana. The Hoosiers walloped No. 17 St. John's 90-70 and led an advance of the top four teams in The Associated Press ratings.

Second-ranked Marquette whipped Western Kentucky 79-60; No. 3 Rutgers, the nation's only other undefeated quintet, had the scare of its life before nipping Princeton 54-53 and fourth-ranked Nevada-Las Vegas buried Boise State 103-78. Sixth-ranked UCLA, the defending NCAA champion, also advanced with a 74-64 victory over San Diego State.

Leon Douglas, a 6-foot-10 center who was the Southeastern Conference's Player of the Year, keyed Alabama's victory over North Carolina with 35 points and 17 rebounds.

Midwest, at Baton Rouge, La. — Indiana vs. Alabama and Marquette vs. Western Michigan.

Midwest, at Louisville, Ky. — Notre Dame vs. Michigan and Missouri vs. Texas Tech.

West, at Los Angeles — Nevada-Las Vegas vs. Arizona and UCLA vs. Pepperdine.

The regional finals will be Saturday.

The two big upsets of Saturday's opening round came at Charlotte, N.C., where unheralded VMI stunned ninth-ranked Tennessee 81-75 and similarly unranked DePaul turned back No. 13 Virginia 69-60. At Providence, R.I., Rutgers edged Princeton and Connecticut outlasted Hofstra 80-78 in overtime.

Alabama and Marquette won their games at Dayton, Ohio, while Indiana came through at South Bend, Ind., along with No. 16 Western Michigan, a 77-67 winner over Virginia Tech in overtime.

At Lawrence, Kan., seventh-ranked Notre Dame needed the luck of the Irish to nose out No. 15 Cincinnati 79-78 and No. 10 Missouri shaded No. 11 Washington 69-67. Michigan, ranked 14th, squeaked past Wichita State 74-73 at Denton, Tex., while No. 19 Texas Tech trounced Syracuse 69-56.

At Tempe, Ariz., No. 18 Arizona downed Georgetown 83-76 and Pepperdine defeated Memphis State 87-77. Nevada-Las Vegas and UCLA won at Eugene, Ore.

The Indiana-Alabama scuffle could turn into a showdown between Douglas and the Hoosiers' Scott May, AP College Player of the Year. May, who was hampered by a broken wrist when Indiana was eliminated in the regional finals of last year's NCAA Tournament, scored 33 points as the Hoosiers pulled away from stubborn St. John's with a 29-10 spurt midway through the second half.

Once-beaten Marquette stretched its winning streak to 22 games with an easy triumph over Western Kentucky behind Butch Lee's 21 points and 18 by Earl Tatum. The Warriors committed only two turnovers en route to a 36-29 halftime lead and blew the Hilltoppers out with a 14-5 burst early in the second half.

Rutgers' perfect record was in jeopardy in the closing seconds but the Scarlet Knights, who led by 10 early in the second half, survived when Princeton's Pete Molloy, a little-used reserve guard, missed the first part of a one-and-one situation with four seconds left.

Nevada-Las Vegas, which averaged 110.8 points a game during the regular season, took a 48-39 halftime lead over Boise and poured it on in the second half. Eddie Owens topped the Rebels with 24 points and Jackie Robinson added 20. UCLA's Richard Washington collected 25 and the Bruins broke open a tight game with San Diego State in the second half after leading by only three at the intermission.

Tennessee, minus Southeastern Conference scoring champ Bernard King, out with a thumb injury, fell to VMI despite Ernie Grunfeld's 38 points. The winners shot a blistering 66 per cent and Will Bynum, Ron Carter and John Krovic combined for 56 points.

Missouri's Jim Kennedy made two free throws and Willie Smith and Scott Sims one apiece in the final minute as the Tigers, behind 36-30 at the half, overtook Washington. DePaul trailed Virginia by five at halftime but Ron Norwood rallied the Blue Demons by scoring 21 of his 28 points in the second half.

Playmaker Jim Rappis turned scorer with 20 points on 8-of-13 shooting to lead Arizona over Georgetown, Mike Russell and Rick Bullock combined for 40 points as Texas Tech manhandled smaller Syracuse.

Brazilian Marcos Leite's 34 points led Pepperdine over Memphis State and Connecticut came from 15 points back in the second half to nip Hofstra in overtime.

FOULED: Western Michigan University's Tom Cutter (foreground) grabs a rebound and is fouled by Virginia Tech's Ernest Wansley during first half action of the NCAA Midwest Regional in South Bend Saturday. Boys Help Win Girls Regional

From ASSOCIATED PRESS

Two players on the Grosse Pointe North team received special attention Saturday in the girls' state high school volleyball tournament at Mount Clemens.

Bob Marshall and Dennis Knoff, the only males in the tourney, helped Grosse Pointe North win the Class A regional title.

Required to wear girls' uniforms, Marshall and Knoff participated in 15-10 and 15-11 victories over Detroit Dominican and 15-9, 8-15 and 15-6 games with Mount Clemens.

"It was all legal," said Jim Dickey of Mount Clemens' athletic staff. "When the other teams protested, we checked with the Michigan High School Athletic Association (MHSAA)."

"Joan Warrington (assistant director of the MHSAA) assured us that the boys were eligible to play. They had been on the team's roster all season and there was nothing we could do about it."

Niles' Girls Volleyball Team Advances To State

Niles will be the lone area representative in the girls volleyball state finals to be held next Saturday across the state.

The Vikings, in just their third year of competition, captured the Class A regional Saturday at Lake Michigan College by beating Kalamazoo Loy Norrix 15-5, 13-15, 15-13 in the championship match.

Niles will take an impressive 24-4 record into the Class A state finals next Saturday at Schoolcraft College against Ferndale.

Two other area teams had their title hopes ended in the regional finals. Lakeshore was ousted by Sturgis 6-15, 15-10, 15-12 in the Class B title match at Brandywine, while Buchanan met the same fate at the hands of Kalamazoo Christian 17-15, 16-14 in the Class C finals at Marcellus.

Niles coach Sharon Flanagan attributed her team's win to good serving and strong team play.

"This is the most exciting thing to happen to the Niles girls since we started girls athletics," Flanagan said. "No matter what we do Saturday it's going to be quite an honor to go to state and be one of the top schools."

"We're pretty excited," she added. "Before Saturday we hadn't played very well under pressure. We must have loosened up finally."

Pat Villwock and Kim Kessick were the Viking sparkplugs, each scoring 24 points in the three regional matches. Niles defeated Grandville and Grand Rapids Central in straight sets to reach the title match. The third game of the championship match was knotted at 13-13 when the eight-minute clock ran out. The Vikings went on to post the win in overtime, collecting two quick points.

A height disadvantage proved to be too much for Lakeshore to overcome in its title match. Sturgis, now 16-2, fell behind 8-1 in the third game of the championship match before finally wearing down the Lancers.

"We are definitely lacking in height," Lancer coach Inge Botts said. "And that was something that Sturgis had."

Jodi Rabbers was the top scorer for Lakeshore, which bowed out of the tourney with a 22-10 record.

Kalamazoo Christian needed overtime in both games to top Buchanan and gain the championship in Class C. Christian is now 32-3, while Buchanan finished 24-6.

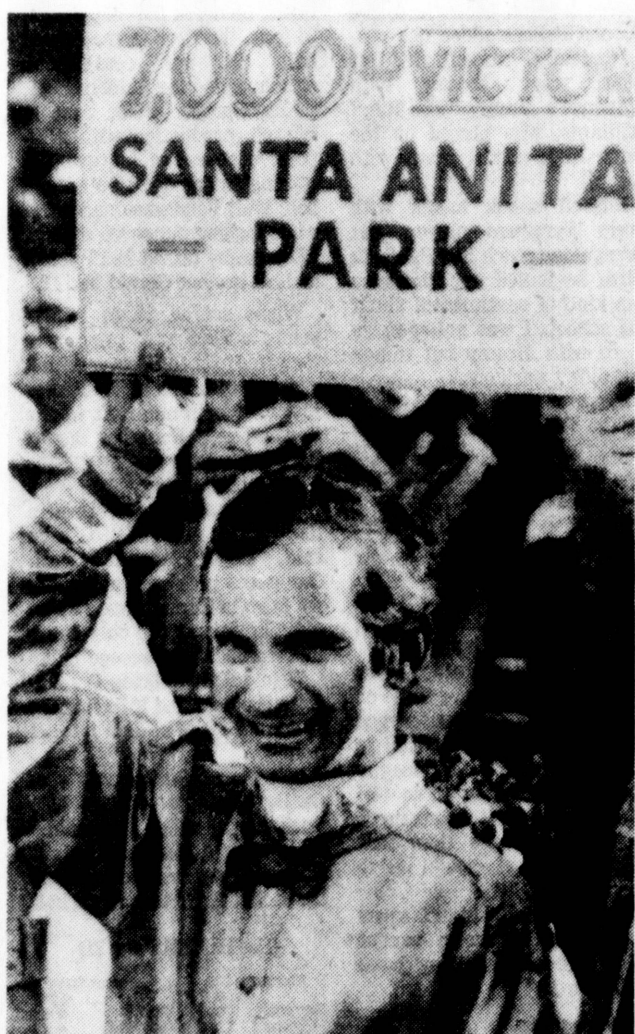

"We played very well against Kalamazoo Christian," Bucks' coach Carolyn Karpinski said. "I can't complain. They were a very good team."

Lynn Bobo and Patience Vanderbush topped the Buchanan attack. Bobo scored 14 points in the title match and had 24 in an earlier tourney win over Berrien Springs. Vanderbush had 12 points in the Bucks' victory over Marcellus and did a fine job spiking throughout the tourney.

Berrien Gymnasts Dominate CanAmer Cagers, Icers Don't Fare As Well

Berrien County dominated the gymnastics competition at the CanAmer Winter Games over the weekend.

Local gymnasts topped 10 of 12 possible first places, including a sweep of the intermediate and advanced classes.

Gwen Bogan was a double winner in the intermediate division for Berrien, capturing the floor exercises and bars. Susan Fitzkum captured the intermediate vault event and also took the class' all-around title over Chris York, who won the beam exercise.

Tracy Lange paced the area winners in the beginner class, taking the beam as well as the all-around title. Tammy Groer won the vault.

In the advanced class, Kim Edwards won the all-around and the beam. Terry Bohanek finished second in the all-around, while tying for first with Laura Woodruff in the vault event. Mary Boelke took the bars and Branda Leedy captured the floor exercises.

Berrien didn't fare as well in the basketball and hockey competition as Brant County took both matches.

Mark Gemmell's basket in the last five seconds of overtime gave the Canadians a 23-21 win in the first basketball game. The Canadians raced out to a 25-2 halftime lead enroute to an easy 57-24 win in the second tilt.

Brant County totally outclassed Berrien in hockey, winning the midwest class game 17-0 and the juvenile game 11-1.

Seven Gymnasts Qualify For Championships

Seven area girls qualified for the Michigan Association of Gymnastics Class 1 championships with their efforts in the Class 2 meet Saturday.

Heading the list is Vickie Boelke, who won the balance beam competition and finished third in the all-around in the 15-year-old and over class. Boelke also took fifth in the vault, eighth in floor exercise and ninth in uneven bars.

Also qualifying from the 15 and over group, were Juanita Frazier, who was ninth in the vault, and Sue Christiansen, who came in fourth in balance beam, fourth in vault, and fifth in all-around.

Angie Smith and Duanna McKinley were qualifiers from the 10 and 11 year old class. McKinley finished eighth on the uneven bars, while Smith tied for 10th in the same event.

to break the game open.

"Their size decided it," Gibson said. "They're just too big for us. We outrebounded them in the first half, but they just wore us down. And they are excellent shooters. There's not much we can do when they sit out there and hit those 15-footers."

Buchanan's penetration in the second half also helped put the Bucks in good rebounding position.

"We penetrated the gaps of the zone in the second half and got the ball to the open man," Wilson said. "The more penetration we got, the better rebounding position we were in."

Wilson praised the play of Walt Vanderbush, who was in charge of directing the offense for the Bucks.

"Walt did a super job of running the whole show for us," Wilson said. "The couple of times that he had ball control errors, the turnovers should have been shared by someone else who didn't move. His court vision is as good as any guard I've ever had."

Buchanan's superiority finally began to show in the late moments of the third quarter and in the fourth. The Bucks scored the last five points of the third quarter to take a commanding 52-40 lead. Decatur never got closer than 11 after that.

A 10-2 spurt midway through the final quarter gave Buchanan its biggest lead at 70-49.

For the game, the Bucks continued their brilliant tournament shooting, hitting 34 of 83 for 52 per cent. Decatur meshed 23 of 48 for 48 per cent.

Buchanan finished with a

Berrien Gymnasts Dominate CanAmer Cagers, Icers Don't Fare As Well

Berrien County dominated the gymnastics competition at the CanAmer Winter Games over the weekend.

Local gymnasts topped 10 of 12 possible first places, including a sweep of the intermediate and advanced classes.

Gwen Bogan was a double winner in the intermediate division for Berrien, capturing the floor exercises and bars. Susan Fitzkam captured the intermediate vault event and also took the class' all-around title over Chris York, who won the beam exercise.

Tracy Lange paced the area winners in the beginner class, taking the beam as well as the all-around title. Tammy Greer won the vault.

In the advanced class, Kim Edwards won the all-around and the beam. Terry Bohanek finished second in the all-around, while tying for first with Laura Woodruff in the vault event. Mary Boelcke took the bars and Branda Leedy captured the floor exercises.

Berrien didn't fare as well in the basketball and hockey competition as Brant County took both matches.

Mark Gemmell's basket in the last five seconds of overtime gave the Canadians a 23-21 win in the first basketball game. The Canadians raced out to a 25-2 halftime lead enroute to an easy 57-24 win in the second tilt.

Brant County totally outclassed Berrien in hockey, winning the midget class game 17-0 and the Juvenile game 11-4.

Texas-El Paso Bags NCAA Track Crown

DETROIT (AP) — Foreigners had their turns on the winner's platform at the 12th National Collegiate Athletic Association Indoor Track Championships — but Americans made enough significant contributions to bolster U.S. hopes for the Summer Olympics.

Some critics seemed concerned that foreigners were losing their track talents with United States college teams at the expense of America's Olympic efforts.

But there were enough native-American winners in the weekend meet at Cobo Arena in Detroit to, perhaps, stave off some of the more severe criticism.

Texas-El Paso (UTEP), which got a meet record-setting performance from its Kenyan distance medley relay quartet Saturday, easily coasted to its third straight championship — an unprecedented feat.

The Miners, who had 17 points after Friday's seven finals, wound up with 23 after the last 11 final events Saturday to easily outdistance the 15 points by Villanova, Tennessee was third with 14, followed by Washington State and Illinois with 13 each, Auburn with 12, plus Long Beach State, Kansas State and Western Kentucky with 10.

There were 122 teams competing and 53 managed at least a point.

Earl Bell of Arkansas State, a 20-year-old junior from Jonesboro, Ark., turned in what was probably the most impressive performance of the meet by successfully defending his mile vault title with a meet record leap of 18 1/4 feet to conclude the competition. He narrowly missed three tries at a world mark of 19-4.

Another American, Long Beach State's Dwight Stones, won the high jump with a meet mark of 7 feet 3 inches. He failed three times at 7-4 1/2. Stones recently set the world record of 7-6 1/2.

"My goal is 18-6," said Bell. "I'm not changing this until I reach it. I think 18 feet is possible — several guys could do it now. I think it's possible I could do it, but right now my goal is 18-6."

Stones said he's only got two title goals left: "The NCAA Outdoors and the Olympic gold medal."

Villanova's Mark Belger, a 19-year-old from Long Island, set one of Saturday's five meet records with a 2:07.29 in the 1,000-yard run. The old mark of 2:07.4 was set by Duke's Bob Wheeler in 1971.

Other Americans to win Saturday were Louisiana State's Allen Misher of Houston, with a 60-yard high hurdles time of :37.28, and Auburn freshman Harvey Glance of Phoenix City, Ala., with a winning 60-yard dash of :36.21.

"I've been working to peak here," Misher said, "and peak again for the Olympic trials. I

Tennessee got a winning mile relay time of 3:16.03 from Americans Lamar Prevor, Mike Barlow, Ronnie Harris and Jerome Morgan, while Wisconsin's home-grown quartet of Mark Randall, Steve Lacy, Mark Sang and Dick Moss captured the two-mile in 7:26.79. Irishman Eamon Coughlan gave Villanova a triumph in the mile with a 4:01.44, clocking. Englishman Nick Rose defended his two-mile crown with a meet record 8:30.51 to beat the mark of 8:33.6 set by Villanova's John Hartnett in 1974.

The 600-yard run winner, Charles Dromie of New Mexico, is a sophomore from Uganda, East Africa. He was clocked in 1:10.26.
UTEP's impressive distance medley relay team, which finished three-fourths of a lap

Misecivius Keeps Friars Alive

NEW YORK (AP) — Bob Misecivius is not the easiest name in the world to pronounce, but it's spelling success for the Providence Friars in the 39th National Invitation Tournament.

The Providence strongman with the tricky name is the main reason his team is in Tuesday night's quarter-finals against Louisville.

"Misecivius is a young player with little experience and he can sometimes keep both teams in the game at the same time," says Providence Coach Dave Gavitt. "He sometimes tries to do too much on offense — but he did what he was told Saturday night."

Misecivius was as tough to handle as his name, scoring 16 of his 20 points in the second half, leading Providence to an 84-68 romp over North Carolina A&T in the opening round.

Three other first-round games were staged at Madison Square Garden, and Kentucky beat Niagara 67-61, North Carolina-Charlotte trimmed the University of San Francisco 79-74 in overtime and Holy Cross turned back St. Peter's 84-77.

The results set up a quarter-final doubleheader tonight matching North Carolina-Charlotte against Oregon and Holy Cross against North Carolina State. Along with the Providence-Louisville match Tuesday night, Kentucky will face Kansas State.

Providence and Louisville met earlier in the season and the Friars beat the Cardinals 63-60 with a weapon Gavitt calls the "spread offense."

James Lee led Kentucky with 20 points, while Jack Glvens added 16. Niagara was paced by Andy Walker's 18.
Melvin Watkins hit the go-ahead field goal with 1:03 in overtime to spur North Carolina-Charlotte past San Francisco in the best game of the opening four. Chris Potter netted 23 points, including seven in a game-breaking stretch, leading Holy Cross past St. Peter's.

Consolation Win Gives Iowa NCAA Wrestling Title

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP) — University of Iowa wrestling Coach Gary Kordelmeier doesn't think he's quite realized the Hawkeyes have won their second consecutive NCAA wrestling championship.

"I expect we've been cheated out of the excitement of winning. It will be a slow-coming realization. But it's better to do it this way," Kordelmeier said after Iowa captured the title in consolation finals Saturday.

Iowa overcame the challenge of Big Eight champion Iowa State, which had won six previous titles, when Hawkeye Tim Cysewski defeated Indiana's Sam Komar, 6-5, in the 134-pound consolation division.

Iowa ended the tournament with 123.5 points to Iowa State's 66.75. It was a two-team race all the way and the standings ended with Oklahoma State third with 64.5 followed by Wisconsin at 64; Lehigh 55.25; Cal Poly-San Luis Obispo 53; Minnesota 43; Michigan 38.25; Oklahoma 34.25; and Penn State 23.25.

Chuck Yagala successfully defended his title in the 150-pound division by defeating Iowa State's Pete Galea 5-0 after reaching the finals by scoring three fouls and one decision.

The match that riveted the attention of the crowd of 6,000 was when 134-pound Mike Frick of Lehigh defended his title by a 7-4 defeat of Michigan State's Pat Milkovich, who won national titles in 1972 and 1974 at 126 pounds.

Frick and Yagala were the only 1975 titlists to repeat, and Frick expected it to be easier.

Wisconsin surprised the field of 110 contenders by winning three national championships.

At 126, Jack Reinwand declined California-Santa Barbara's Harold Wiley, 8-4. Reinwand was the wild card pick from the Big Ten.

At 158 pounds, Wisconsin's Lee Kemp took Washington's Tom Brown, 4-0, and his teammate Pat Christensen followed by defeating Iowa's Dan Wagemann, 8-7.

Lehigh's 177-pound champion last year, Mike Lebermann, managed only third place this year as he won the consolation final with a 4-2 decision over Sythell Thompson of Cal Poly-San Luis Obispo.

Last year's heavyweight winner, Larry Beilenberg of Oregon State also managed only third place this time, but whipped Clarion's Chuck Coryea, 130 in their match.

Expectations for Arizona State University, which brought a 15-0 dual meet record to the tournament, dimmed quickly. ASU ended with only 16.5 points in the Brigham Young University for 21st place. The only ASU wrestler to get to semifinals was 150-pounder Royce Oliver, who split a pair of consolation matches and finished fifth in his division.

Iowa's other titlists were Bud Smith at 142 pounds, who defeated Gene Costello of Slippery Rock, 12-4, and Chris Campbell at 177 pounds, who defeated Mark Johnson of Michigan, 9-4.

The other individual titles went to 118-pounder Mark Digraffano of Cal Poly-San Luis Obispo, who defeated Iowa State's Danny Jones, 14-4; 190-pound Evan Johnson of Minnesota, who defeated Iowa State's Frank Santana, 6-6 in overtime; and heavyweight Jimmy Jackson of Oklahoma State, who defeated Greg Gibson of Oregon, 5-3.

Bobby Unser Winner; Gal Racer Finishes

PHOENIX, Arizona (AP) — Bobby Unser held off Pancho Carter by less than two car lengths in a last-lap sprint to the finish Sunday to win the Bryan 150 race for Indianapolis cars.

Arlene Hiss, who made history by being the first woman in this type of racing, finished a distant 14th and was black-flagged once for going too slow.

Rookie Tim Frantz crashed with only seven laps to go, setting up the dash to the checkered flag by Unser, Carter, and Gordon Johncock. The leaders got the green flag and white flag for the final lap at the same time.

Carter closed to within inches of Unser on the start of the final circuit around the one-mile Fistrack International Speedway oval, but Unser jumped ahead by a decisive margin heading into the backstretch.

Carter picked up ground again in the final turn, but fell short. Johncock was another three laps behind.

Behind Johncock was pole winner Al Unser, who lost a lap with various tire problems. Fifth was Mike Mosley, who was in his first race since ending a self-imposed retirement last August.

Bronco Is MAC All-Academic

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Junior Chuck Godyear of Miami led five repeaters who made the six-man 1976 Mid-American Conference All-Academic basketball team.

Godyear was a unanimous choice for the second consecutive year.

The six-man team represents a tie vote by the conference's faculty athletic representatives.

He was joined by three-time honoree Jim Kurzen of Western Michigan, two-time selections Scott Love of Ohio and Eastern Michigan teammates Dan Hoff and Walt Jones, along with Dave Speicher of Toledo.

To be eligible for the team, a varsity letter winner must have earned at least a B average for either the last academic year or this academic career.

Texas-El Paso Bags NCAA Track Crown

DETROIT (AP) — Foreigners had their turns on the winner's platform at the 12th National Collegiate Athletic Association Indoor Track Championships — but Americans made enough significant contributions to bolster U.S. hopes for the Summer Olympics.

Some critics seemed concerned that foreigners were honing their track talents with United States college teams at the expense of America's Olympic efforts.

But there were enough native-American winners in the weekend meet at Cobo Arena in Detroit to, perhaps, stave off some of the more severe criticisms.

Texas-El Paso (UTEP), which got a meet record-setting performance from its Kenyan distance medley relay quartet Saturday, easily coasted to its third straight championship — an unprecedented feat.

The Miners, who had 17 points after Friday's seven finals, wound up with 23 after the last 11 final events Saturday to easily outdistance the 15 points by Villanova. Tennessee was third with 14, followed by Washington State and Illinois with 13 each, Auburn with 12, plus Long Beach State, Kansas State and Western Kentucky with 10.

There were 122 teams competing and 58 managed at least a point.

Earl Bell of Arkansas State, a 20-year-old junior from Jonesboro, Ark., turned in what was probably the most impressive performance of the meet by successfully defending his pole vault title with a meet record leap of 18.4 feet to conclude the competition. He narrowly missed three tries at a world mark of 18.4.

Another American, Long Beach State's Dwight Stones, won the high jump with a meet mark of 7 feet 3 inches. He failed three times at 7-4. Stones recently set the world record of 7-6 1/2.

"My goal is 18-6," said Bell. "I'm not changing this until I reach it.... I think 19 feet is possible — several guys could do it now. I think it's possible I could do it, but right now my goal is 18-6."

Stones said he's only got two title goals left: "The NCAA Outdoors and the Olympic gold medal."

Villanova's Mark Belger, a 19-year-old from Long Island, set one of Saturday's five meet records with a 2:07.29 in the 1,000-yard run. The old mark of 2:07.4 was set by Duke's Bob Wheeler in 1971.

Other Americans to win Saturday were Louisiana State's Allen Misher of Houston, with a 60-yard high hurdles time of :07.29, and Auburn freshman Harvey Gance of Phoenix City, Ala., with a winning 60-yard dash of :06.21.

He used it Saturday night against North Carolina A&T, positioning the 6-foot-9, 230-pound Misecivius out past the key instead of under the basket. And the tactic spreadeagled the Aggies, allowing the big center to cash in on several easy, "back-door," baskets.

Gavitt plans to spring it on Louisville again Tuesday night, so it's no secret weapon as far as the Cardinals are concerned.

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP) — University of Iowa wrestling Coach Gary Kordelmeier doesn't think he's quite realized the Hawkeyes have won their second consecutive NCAA wrestling championship.

"I expect we've been cheated out of the excitement of winning. It will be a slow-coming realization. But it's better to do it this way," Kordelmeier said after Iowa captured the title in consolation finals Saturday.

Iowa overcame the challenge of Big Eight champion Iowa State, which had won six previous titles, when Hawkeye Tim Cysewski decided Indiana's Sam Komar, 6-5, in the 134-pound consolation division.

Iowa ended the tournament with 123.5 points to Iowa State's 85.75. It was a two-team race all the way and the standings ended with Oklahoma State third with 64.5 followed by Wisconsin at 64; Lehigh 55.25; Cal Poly-San Luis Obispo 53; Minnesota 43; Michigan 36.25; Oklahoma 34.25 and Penn State 23.25.

Chuck Yagala successfully defended his title in the 150-pound division by decisioning Iowa State's Pete Galea 5-0 after reaching the finals by scoring three fouls and one decision. The match that riveted the attention of the crowd of 6,000 was when 134-pound Mike Frick of Lehigh defended his title by a 7-4 defeat of Michigan State's Pat Mikovitch, who won national titles in 1972 and 1974 at 126-pounds.

Frick and Yagala were the only 1975 titlists to repeat, and Frick expected it to be easier.

Wisconsin surprised the field of 110 contenders by winning three national championships. At 126, Jack Reinwand decisioned California-Santa Barbara's Harold Wiley, 9-6. Reinwand was the wild card pick from the Big Ten.

At 158-pounds, Wisconsin's Lee Kemp took Washington's Tom Brown, 4-0, and his teammate Pat Christenson followed by decisioning Iowa's Dan Wagemann, 9-7.

Lehigh's 177-pound champion last year, Mike Leiberman, managed only third place this year as he won the consolation final with a 4-2 decision over Sythell Thompson of Cal Poly-San Luis Obispo.

Last year's heavyweight winner, Larry Beilenberg of Oregon State also managed only third place this time, but whipped Clarion's Chuck Corryea, 130 in their match.

Expectations for Arizona State University, which brought a 15-0 dual meet record to the tournament, dimmed quickly. ASU ended with only 16.5 points to tie Brigham Young University for 21st place. The only ASU wrestler to get to semifinals was 150-pounder Royce Oliver, who split a pair of consolation matches and finished fifth in his division.

Iowa's other titlists were Brad Smith at 142-pounds, who decisioned Gene Costello of Slippery Rock, 12-4, and Chris Campbell at 177-pounds, who decisioned Mark Johnson of Michigan, 9-4.

The other individual titles went to 118-pounder Mark Digiralamo of Cal Poly-San Luis Obispo, who decisioned Iowa State's Donny Jones, 14-4; 190-pound Evan Johnson of Minnesota, who decisioned Iowa State's Frank Santana, 6-6 in overtime; and heavyweight Jimmy Jackson of Oklahoma State, who decisioned Greg Gibson of Oregon, 5-3.

Bobby Unser Winner; Gal Racer Finishes

PHOENIX, Arizona (AP) — Bobby Unser held off Pancho Carter by less than two car lengths in a last-lap sprint to the finish Sunday to win the Bryan 150 race for Indianapolis cars.

Arlene Hiss, who made history by being the first woman in this type of racing, finished a distant 14th and was black-flagged once for going too slow.

Rookie Tom Frantz crashed with only seven laps to go, setting up the dash to the checkered flag by Unser, Carter, and Gordon Johncock. The leaders got the green flag and white flag for the final lap at the same time.

Carter closed to within inches of Unser on the start of the final circuit around the one-mile Fastrack International Speedway oval, but Unser jumped ahead by a decisive margin heading into the backstretch.

Carter picked up ground again in the final turn, but fell short. Johncock was another three laps behind.

Behind Johncock was pole winner Al Unser, who lost a lap with various tire problems. Fifth was Mike Mosley, who was in his first race since ending a self-imposed retirement last August.

Bronco Is MAC All-Academic

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Junior Chuck Goodyear of Miami led five repeaters who made the six-man 1976 Mid-American Conference All-Academic basketball team.

Goodyear was a unanimous choice for the second consecutive year.

The six-man team represents a tie vote by the conference's faculty athletic representatives.

He was joined by three-time honoree Jim Kurzen of Western Michigan, two-time selections Scott Love of Ohio and Eastern Michigan teammates Dan Hoff and Walt Jones, along with Dave Speicher of Toledo.

To be eligible for the team, a varsity letter winner must have earned at least a B average for either the last academic year or his academic career.

Leach Helps Flyers Keep Streak Going

From ASSOCIATED PRESS

A time for celebration: Reggie Leach scores twice to become the second Philadelphia player to reach the 50-goal plateau and the Flyers remain unbeaten in 21 National Hockey League games as they gear up to defend their Stanley Cup championship.

Captain Fred Shero, however, had a surly reaction to Leach's accomplishment, his team's play and Sunday night's 6-1 triumph over the Atlanta Flames.

"Everyone can contribute more," growled Shero after the Flyers' 15th triumph, with six ties, since a Jan. 21 loss in Atlanta.

He continued his remarks with a slight slap at Leach.

"I'm resigned to the fact that Leach will always be a goalscorer," replied Shero. "I'm not asking him to do anything impossible. All I want him to do is when he's 10 feet from the puck, to go after it — not let (center) Bobby Clarke do all the work."

"That's the kind of thing that makes us a team."

As a team, the Flyers worked hard enough to pique Flames Coach Fred Creighton, who observed after the contest that "this is the third time this season I have walked out of here embarrassed." The Flames also have dropped 7-2 and 7-3 decisions at Philadelphia this season.

Don Sulleski, Bob Kelly, Mel Bridgman and Gary Dornhoefer had the other goals as Philadelphia pulled within two games of the Boston Bruins' NHL record of 23 consecutive unbeaten contests, set during the 1940-41 season. Larry Carriere tallied for the Flames, who had a six-game unbeaten string snapped.

Meanwhile, Boston topped California 4-2; Montreal bested Washington 5-1; Pittsburgh crushed St. Louis 7-1; the New York Islanders tripped Chicago 5-3, and Buffalo routed Minnesota 8-2.

Wayne Cashman scored two goals, one of them off the skate of a Seals defenseman, as Boston extended its home winning streak to 14 games.

Dallas Smith and Johnny Bucyk had the other Bruins goals while Bob Murdoch and Fred Ahern hit for the Seals.

Guy Lafleur netted his 46th and 47th goals of the campaign to carry Montreal over Washington. Goalie Michel Larocque was credited with a rare assist on Bob Gainey's game-opening tally for the Canadiens, who outshot the Caps 42-23.

Ron Schock scored twice during the four-goal first period which sent Pittsburgh past St. Louis and into a tie with second-place Los Angeles in the Norris Division.

Pierre Larocque added his 41st of the year and Jean Pronovost his 45th for the Penguins.

Garry Howatt scored three goals and the Islanders scored four goals in the third period to extend their unbeaten string to 11 games.

Alan Rattray Top Men's Skater

CLEVELAND (AP) — Alan Rattray of Los Angeles picked up victories in the 400-meter and 3,000-meter races Sunday and won the men's senior title at the National Indoor Speedskating Championships.

Rattray, who failed to make the United States team which took part in the recent Winter Olympics, grabbed the over-all title despite falling and finishing second in the 1,500 meters.

The 21-year-old Rattray nipped friend and arch-rival Benjie Perez of Los Angeles for the title as Perez won the 1,500 meters and finished second in the 400. Rattray finished second in the 1,500 Sunday and won the 300 meters Saturday.

"Benjie was the only guy I was worried about and all I was concerned with was staying ahead of him," Rattray explained.

Both of them will advance to the World Indoor Championships in two weeks at Evansville, Ind.

Illinois far outdistanced the other state teams entered in the competition, outscoring Wisconsin 188-94. Michigan was next with 82 points, followed by Minnesota with 49, Southern California with 43 and Ohio with 33.

Celeste Chlapaty of the Illinois team and Peggy Harrich of the Missouri entry tied for the senior woman's title, with the latter winning both the 800- and 1,000-meter events Sunday.

Swede Clinches World Cup Title

ASPEN, Colo. (AP) — Ingenieur Stenmark of Sweden still remembers his first great thrill in skiing: the day he won the Donald Duck Cup.

And Sunday, after clinching the World Cup championship — the most prestigious prize in the world of amateur skiing — it seemed no less important.

The victory gave Stenmark — idolized in Sweden as is tennis star Bjorn Borg — 241 Cup points to 190 for Italy's Gustavo Thoeni, the runner-up and four-time world champion.

Stenmark clinched the title by winning the men's slalom here. He skied down the very tricky, 73-gate first course in 57.58 seconds and the 66-gate second course in 52.18, for a combined time of 1:49.76 — nearly 1 1/2 seconds ahead of surprise second-place finisher Phil Mahre of White Pass, Wash., at 1:51.34.

Thoeni was third, in 1:51.84, followed by Italian Piern Gros, the only man to break Thoeni's World Cup dominance in the past five years, in 1:52.07. Thoeni first won the Cup in 1971 and held it through 1973. Gros won in 1974 and Thoeni regained it last year.

Stenmark called this victory his revenge for the Olympics. Heralded as Sweden's best alpine skier since Stein Eriksen, he was his country's best hope for Olympic gold. But he returned empty-handed.

"I was a little disappointed at the Olympics," Stenmark said. "but I try not to set my goals too high so I won't be too disappointed."

"Back home, they don't understand that just one win in the World Cup is more important than a gold medal in the Olympics," he added.

Celtics Miss Havlicek On Offense

From Associated Press

The Boston Celtics are learning just how much John Havlicek means to their offense ... and they're learning the hard way.

The Celtics have played six games since their captain and all-star forward suffered his knee injury, and have been held under 100 points each time out. The latest was a 102-89 loss to the Washington Bullets in a nationally televised battle of division leaders Sunday.

"We're scratching right now," said Boston Coach Tommy Heinsohn, whose team is 3-3 without Havlicek but still leads the Atlantic Division by a comfortable margin. "Paul Silas is playing his game (at power forward), but we're not getting the job from the other forward and that's the scoring position."

"Havlicek gives us our basic points," he added. "Without him, we got caught where we can't play our style. The whole philosophy of the team is based on a sledgehammer attack — go, go, go at them."

The Celtics went at Washington in the early stages Sunday, but then their attack sputtered. The Bullets dominated the second half, outscoring Boston 52-29 and controlling the tempo of the game.

Elsewhere in the NBA, it was Los Angeles 137, Buffalo 109; New Orleans 119, Golden State 103; Kansas City 114, Atlanta 113; in overtime: Seattle 113, New York 103; Phoenix 108, Milwaukee 106, and Portland 114, Detroit 103.

Kareem Abdul-Jabbar hit 13 of 15 field goal attempts, scored 30 points and added 12 rebounds, eight assists, seven steals and three blocked shots as the Lakers equaled the highest one-game point total in the NBA this season.

Golden State, which clinched a tie for the Pacific Division title Saturday night, missed a chance to win it outright as the margin for the Kings. Archibald finished with 21 points and 16 assists.

Jazz came up with its third victory in three night. Pete Maravich topped New Orleans with 31 points.

Portland center Bill Walton returned to action after a 17-game absence because of an injured right leg and scored eight points in a reserve role. Guards Geoff Petrie and Larry Steele scored 25 and 22 points, respectively, to help the Blazers snap a three-game losing streak.

Seattle built a 19-point lead and then held off a Knicks rally to post their sixth straight win over New York. Fred Brown topped the Sonics with 20 points.

Paul Westphal's 12-footer from the baseline with 36 seconds to play was the winning basket for Phoenix, which came back from a 13-point halftime deficit. Rookie Alvan Adams led the Suns with 25 points.

Battle Over Squad Size Seen At NFL Meeting

CORONADO, Calif. (AP) — Desegued by legal entanglement over its reserve clause, the National Football League opened annual meetings today with a disagreement on the number of players its teams should carry.

According to official rules, the limit is 36 but in past years owners have boosted that to as many as 47. The limit in 1975 was 43.

Prior to 1974, there was a "taxi" squad limit of seven above the regular roster of 40 —

which permitted clubs to carry a reserve squad. Two years ago the taxi squads were eliminated.

Others want to return to at least 47 with Coach George Allen of the Washington Redskins vocal in that group.

Player limits and the injured reserved list might well be

Only three on the injured reserve list could be protected from being drafted by other clubs at the end of the season, so to protect the others from the draft, the Rams kept injured players on their active roster and suited up less than the squad limit.

For two years there has been no contract between the players and the league. Two years ago there was a strike. Last year there was competition with no contract. The Joe Kapp case in San Francisco and the John Mackey suit in Minneapolis have gone against the NFL and its "Rozelle Rule" that a team losing a man who plays out his option and signs with another club must be compensated by the signing club.

A year ago, the NFL calmed its labor relations problems with players by agreeing to a five-year plan still providing there be compensation for a team that loses a free agent player. However, if the two clubs can't reach an agreement, the dispute goes to binding arbitration rather than to Rozelle for his decision.

All this will be discussed behind closed doors at the swank Hotel del Coronado during the week-long annual session.

On Tuesday, the league

decides which city receives the Super Bowl for 1978. Pasadena's Rose Bowl already has it for 1977. The usual bidders — Dallas, Houston, Los Angeles, Miami and New Orleans — will have groups present.

Pasadena tries to repeat its 1975 upset when it landed the NFL game for next year.

On Wednesday, the Management Council will tell the owners how its negotiations with the players are going.

Valley Sells

OAKLAND (AP) — Wayne Valley, one of the founders of the Oakland Raiders 16 years ago, has sold his 15.2 per cent interest in the National Football League club for $3.4 million, the Oakland Tribune reported Friday.

Veenstra Earns MVP Selection

HOLLAND, Mich. (AP) — Calvin College's Mark Veenstra has become the first player in Michigan Intercollegiate Athletic Association history to be named the league's most valuable player in basketball three times.

Veenstra was the unanimous pick for league MVP honors in a vote of member coaches, who also selected their all-conference squad.

A 6-foot-9 junior from Hudsonville, Mich., Veenstra led the MIAA in scoring for the third straight year as Calvin claimed its seventh championship in the last eight years.

Veenstra scored a league single game record 56 points against Adrian and wound up with a 29.2 average, fourth highest in league history. He was third in the nation in scoring and fourth in rebounding according to National Collegiate Athletic Association Division III statistics.

Battle Over Squad Size Seen At NFL Meeting

CORONADO, Calif. (AP) — Besieged by legal entanglement over its reserve clause, the National Football League opened annual meetings today with a disagreement on the number of players its teams should carry.

According to official rules, the limit is 36 but in past years owners have boosted that to as many as 47. The limit in 1975 was 43.

Prior to 1974, there was a "taxi" squad limit of seven above the regular roster of 40 — which permitted clubs to carry a reserve squad. Two years ago the taxi squads were eliminated.

Currently one group wants to reduce from the 43 of last year and Eugene Klein, majority owner of the San Diego Chargers is in that alignment.

Others want to return to at least 47 with Coach George Allen of the Washington Redskins vocal in that group.

Player limits and the injured reserve list might well be coupled in discussions of the owners. Last year, the Los Angeles Rams, for instance, had seven regulars knocked out for the season.

Only three on the injured reserve list could be protected from being drafted by other clubs at the end of the season, so to protect the others from the draft, the Rams kept injured players on their active roster and suited up less than the squad limit.

For two years there has been no contract between the players and the league. Two years ago there was a strike. Last year there was competition with no contract. The Joe Kapp case in San Francisco and the John Mackey suit in Minneapolis have gone against the NFL and its "Rozelle Rule" that a team losing a man who plays out his option and signs with another club must be compensated by the signing club.

A year ago, the NFL calmed its labor relations problems with players by agreeing to a five-year plan still providing there be compensation for a team that loses a free agent player. However, if the two clubs can't reach an agreement, the dispute goes to binding arbitration rather than to Rozelle for his decision.

All this will be discussed behind closed doors at the swank Hotel del Coronado during the week-long annual session.

On Tuesday, the league

decides which city receives the Super Bowl for 1978. Pasadena's Rose Bowl already has it for 1977. The usual bidders — Dallas, Houston, Los Angeles, Miami and New Orleans — will have groups present.

Pasadena tries to repeat its 1975 upset when it landed the NFL gem for next year.

On Wednesday, the Management Council will tell the owners how its negotiations with the players are going.

HUBERT GREEN

'Skinny Kid' Green Runs Away With Doral Open

MIAMI (AP) — Hubert Green describes himself as "just a skinny kid from Birmingham." But in only five full seasons on the pro golfing event and almost $600,000. But that, says Hubert, doesn't make him a great golfer.

"A great golfer, in my mind, is a man who wins the majors — who wins more than one of the majors," Green said. "When I think of great players, I think of Hogan and Snead, men like that.

"I don't wear those kind of shoes."

But that's the next step for the lean and lanky man who scored a run-away, six-stroke, record-setting victory Sunday in the Doral Open.

"After you've won nine tournaments, or 15 tournaments, they just become numbers," Green said after his 18-under-par 270 total had set a record for the demanding, 7,065-yard

the tour for their own, had been in a slump since winning the Dunlop Phoenix tournament in Japan last November. But he staked himself to a five-stroke lead through three rounds of this event, faltered briefly in the final round, but came home a big winner with a front-running, three-under-par 69. He clinched it with a 25-foot birdie putt on the 14th that put him five in front with four to play.

Hayes, a quiet young man from Oklahoma who now has mounted three unsuccessful challenges in as many weeks, three-patted the final hole for a bogey that dropped him back into a tie for second with Nicklaus. Each had a 276 total. Nicklaus, who had difficulties with the par five holes, shot a 68 that wasn't good enough to get him in the chase. Hayes had a closing 71.

Gary Groh of Bridgman shot a final round 77 to give him 280 total for the tourney. It earned him $840.

The victory was worth $40,000 to Green from the total purse of $200,000 and, perhaps of equal importance, made him only the seventh man to gain entry to the elite field for the new World Series of Golf to be played in Akron, Ohio, this fall.

The others are Nicklaus, Crenshaw, Tom Watson, Hale Irwin, Johnny Miller and J.C. Snead.

HUBERT GREEN

'Skinny Kid' Green Runs Away With Doral Open

MIAMI (AP) — Hubert Green describes himself as "just a skinny kid from Birmingham." But in only five full seasons on the pro goanese event and almost $600,000. But that, says Hubert, doesn't make him a great golfer.

"A great golfer, in my mind, is a man who wins the majors — who wins more than one of the majors," Green said. "When I think of great players, I think of Hogan and Snead, men like that. "I don't wear those kind of shoes."

But that's the next step for the lean and lanky man who scored a run-away, six-stroke, record-setting victory Sunday in the Doral Open.

"After you've won nine tournaments, or 15 tournaments, they just become numbers," Green said after his 18-under-par 270 total had set a record for the demanding, 7,065-yard

Green, at 29 one of the leading characters in the cast of young men who rapidly are claiming the tour for their own, had been in a slump since winning the Dunlop Phoenix tournament in Japan last November. But he staked himself to a five-stroke lead through three rounds of this event, faltered briefly in the final round, but came home a big winner with a front-running, three-under-par 69. He clinched it with a 25-foot birdie putt on the 14th that put him five in front with four to play.

Hayes, a quiet young man from Oklahoma who now has mounted three unsuccessful challenges in as many weeks, three-putted the final hole for a bogey that dropped him back into a tie for second with Nicklaus. Each had a 276 total. Nicklaus, who had difficulties with the par five holes, shot a 68 that wasn't good enough to get him in the chase. Hayes had a closing 71.

year, managed a 71 and fourth at 277. Bobby Mitchell and Australian David Graham were at 278. Mitchell after a struggling 73, Graham with a final round of par 72.

Gary Groh of Bridgman shot a final round 77 to give him 289 total for the tourney. It earned him $840.

The victory was worth $40,000 to Green from the total purse of $200,000 and, perhaps of equal importance, made him only the seventh man to gain entry to the elite field for the new World Series of Golf to be played in Akron, Ohio, this fall.

The others are Nicklaus, Crenshaw, Tom Watson, Hale Irwin, Johnny Miller and J.C. Snead.

NEW STANDARDS VERY COSTLY

Some Regulations Work; Not All Do

By BROOKS JACKSON
and
EVANS WITT

WASHINGTON (AP) — America's highway death rate is one-third lower than it was 10 years ago when Washington began requiring safety equipment on cars.

The level of eye-burning sulphur dioxide in the nation's air has dropped 25 per cent since federal environmental controls were imposed five years ago.

If this decade of expanded federal regulation has saved lives and reduced pollution, it has also extended Washington's reach into the lives of individual citizens in ways never before experienced in this country. The homes, cars and workplaces of virtually every American are now expected to some degree by federal officials.

Since 1965, the number of major regulatory agencies has doubled from 12 to 24.

This new regulation costs money. And the record of progress has been uneven and claims of progress hard to justify. The five-year-old Occupational Safety and Health Administration, for example, has yet to produce solid evidence it has reduced job deaths and injuries.

But some of the agencies have made an obvious mark. The anti-discrimination laws enforced by the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission have helped blacks and other minorities increase the number of technical and professional jobs they hold by one-third.

TRAFFIC SAFETY

The record of the Traffic Safety Administration, one of the first in the recent surge of new agencies, shows in a nutshell the benefits and costs of the new wave of federal regulation.

Highways are safer now. Deaths and disabling injuries have been averted, probably by the thousands. Cars cost more. And when the bureaucracy becomes too eager, it can do more harm than good.

When Congress established the agency in 1966, the traffic death rate had reversed its historic slide and had been increasing for five years. More than 50,000 were killed on highways that year, a record at the time.

Today, after nearly a decade of regulation, the death rate per passenger mile is the lowest since statistics have been kept. The rate has dropped each year since the traffic safety law was enacted and the number of persons killed in vehicle accidents is now below the 1966 figure.

Preliminary figures for last year show the death rate had dropped below 1.6 per 100 million miles, compared to 5.7 in 1966.

A dramatic number of auto fatalities were prevented in 1974 as the byproduct of the energy crisis. The gasoline shortage brought the 55 mile-per-hour speed limit, a reduction in highway travel — and 8,400 fewer highway deaths than the year before.

But last year, as speed edged up and travel resumed its upward climb, the actual number of highway deaths did not increase and the death rate per mile continued to drop.

Such protection costs money. Ford estimates its 1971 Pinto carried $120 in federally required safety equipment. That soared to $325 for a 1975 model with new side-door reinforcing beams, stronger roof supports, heavier bumpers and seat belt warning systems.

But when the system's sensors on buses got out of adjustment by as little as six one-thousandths of an inch, the computer would release the brakes during normal braking speeds of about 10 mph and then slam on the brakes at around 5 mph, throwing passengers to the bus floor.

Bus companies began disowning their $1,200 "superbrake" system and Massachusetts threatened to lift the permits of any bus company using the federally required gear.

Finally, after three days of hearings and a two-month comment period, the agency temporarily suspended the standard on Jan. 7.

A similar, if slightly loosened standard is still in effect for semi-trailer truck rigs, despite protests and court suits by drivers and trucking firms.

JOB SAFETY AND HEALTH
In the five years since it was formed, the highly controversial Occupational Safety and Health Administration has produced no reliable indication that it has saved many workers' lives or prevented any significant number of serious job injuries.

In fact, there is still no agreement on even how many workers are killed each year in job accidents. The Bureau of Labor Statistics estimates 5,900 died from job accidents or diseases in 1974, a projection based on reports by 600,000 employers.

But the National Safety Council says its analysis of death certificates shows work accidents caused 13,400 deaths that year.

As evidence of their effectiveness, federal job-safety officials point to a reported drop in the 1974 injury rates in such industries as logging, longshoring and roofing, the so-called

SAFETY AT HOME

One federal agency has exercised power to decree that an electric frypan is unsafe and to make it harder to open aspirin bottles. It may order that all new bicycles and lawn mowers be redesigned.

In three years of existence, the Consumer Product Safety Commission has banished 20 million items from store shelves and homes on grounds they were unsafe.

These included bottles that exploded, disposable cigarette lighters that flared up unexpectedly, electric ranges that shocked their owners and snowmobiles prone to sudden steering failures.

The commission has made mistakes. The courts voided the commission's seizure of 100,000 imported dolls from Bradley Import Co. in Los Angeles. The commission said the dolls were unsafe for children because the costumes were held in with pins. The court, noting that the dolls sold in fashionable gift stores at prices around $75, said there was no evidence the dolls were intended for use by children.

The commission is now pondering a controversial proposal to require new safety features on lawnmowers, which injured 63,300 persons last year, according to a survey of hospital emergency rooms.

Consumers Union, which the commission paid to study the matter, estimates the proposal would add $40 to the cost of a $125 push-type mower, for a variety of features including roller blades that stop instantly. But this $40 estimate is based on a survey of manufacturers that the consumer group feels is unreliable.

Consumers Union also estimates the benefits of the proposal would be between $83 million and $580 million.

'20 Million Items Banished From Stores, Homes As Being Unsafe'

"target industries" where OSHA concentrated early enforcement efforts.

Yet the rates of serious injuries — those which resulted in lost workdays — actually went up in three out of the five industries in 1973. In 1974, when no special enforcement efforts were made, the rate of serious injuries declined in three and went up in two.

In short, the statistics for the very industries where OSHA concentrated its efforts, show no trend in one direction or another.

If OSHA can't yet claim any clear victory, it at least has the satisfaction of proving its critics wrong on a number of counts.

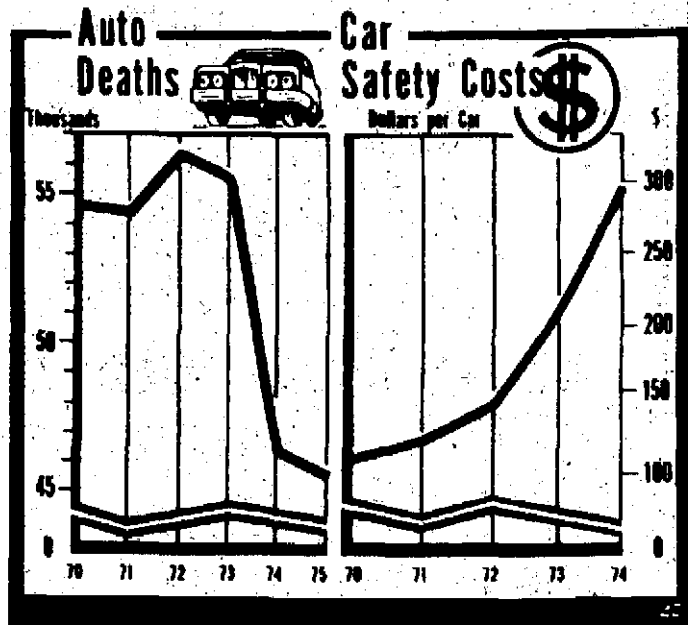

Industry witnesses, for example, once predicted that OSHA's proposal to impose strict protection for workers in polyvinyl chloride plants would put 2.2 million people out of work and cost the economy at least $80 billion.

But OSHA was alarmed by 17 workers' deaths from a rare form of liver cancer linked to the chemical in lab tests with rats. Strict exposure limits were imposed.

What happened? In the year after OSHA's action, one plant did close, but four others opened and the price of polyvinyl chloride declined about 10 per cent below previous highs.

ONCE A DECADE
Small businessmen also said they feared overzealous safety inspectors would ruin them.

One of the most interesting questions that recent revelations about massive corporate contributions to politicians domestic and foreign has raised is, "Who audits the auditors?"

Just the other day there was a story that the Gulf Oil Corporation had rather plaintively asked the cops who were on its freebie list to return the money so it could be distributed to the stockholders. This was not without a certain mordant charm: "I'm not holding my breath waiting for the sinners to come across. But how in the world did Gulf, Lockheed and the other miltits in the dock hide those millions from their auditors and the Internal Revenue Service?"

This is more than an abstract inquiry. I have been working for three days, prebarring my income-tax data. At the risk of sounding pious, I believe in the maxim that taxes are the price we pay for civilization, and it infuriates me that big corporations can seemingly tuck immense amounts away in secret drawers.

If suddenly in the next month every taxpayer decided to cheat their government, the I.R.S. — even if a million inspectors were added — would be helpless. Fortunately this won't happen, but when the average citizen reads about those incredible end-runs made by the corporations, his willingness to abide by the rules can't help but be eroded.

To return to the auditors, I confess to being an economic innocent. Every year I get various financial statements from organizations holding my retirement annuities. They are invariably detailed, but I don't go through the assets and liabilities carefully — I'm simply not equipped to handle arcane economic matters. So I settle for the bottom line and mutter, "Not bad," or, last year, "Did we take a bath?" At the end of these forms is a solemn statement by the auditors, virtually signed in blood, that everything is fine. From this I take confidence that the worthy citizens managing my money have not bought a lacha in St. Cruz where they retire for the winter, or hoarded themselves money to play the commodity futures.

NEW STANDARDS VERY COSTLY

and
EVANS WITT

WASHINGTON (ZAP) — America's highway death rate is one-third lower than it was 10 years ago when Washington began requiring safety equipment on cars.

The level of eye-burning sulphur dioxide in the nation's air has dropped 25 per cent since federal environmental controls were imposed five years ago.

If this decade of expanded federal regulation has saved lives and reduced pollution, it has also extended Washington's reach into the lives of individual citizens in ways never before experienced in this country. The homes, cars and workplaces of virtually every American are now controlled to some degree by federal officials.

Since 1965, the number of major regulatory agencies has doubled from 12 to 24.

This new regulation costs money. And the record of progress has been uneven and claims of progress hard to justify. The five-year-old Occupational Safety and Health Administration, for example, has yet to produce solid evidence it has reduced job deaths and injuries.

But some of the agencies have made an obvious mark. The anti-discrimination laws enforced by the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission have helped blacks and other minorities increase the number of technical and professional jobs they hold by one-third.

TRAFFIC SAFETY

The record of the Traffic Safety Administration, one of the first in the recent surge of new agencies, shows in a nutshell the benefits and costs of the new wave of federal regulation.

becomes too eager, it can do more harm than good.

When Congress established the agency in 1966, the traffic death rate had reversed its historic slide and had been increasing for five years. More than 50,000 were killed on highways that year, a record at the time.

Today, after nearly a decade of regulation, the death rate per passenger mile is the lowest since statistics have been kept. The rate has dropped each year since the traffic safety law was enacted and the number of persons killed in vehicle accidents is now below the 1966 figure.

Preliminary figures for last year show the death rate had dropped below 3.6 per 100 million miles, compared to 5.7 in 1966.

A dramatic number of auto fatalities were prevented in 1974 as the byproduct of the energy crisis. The gasoline shortage brought the 55 mile-per-hour speed limit, a reduction in highway travel — and 9,400 fewer highway deaths than the year before.

But last year, as speed edged up and travel resumed its upward climb, the actual number of highway deaths did not increase and the death rate per mile continued to drop.

Even Ford Motor Co., which says regulations are becoming excessive and too expensive, estimates that cars equipped to meet 1971 safety standards kill and injure about 25 per cent fewer people than unregulated cars.

Such protection costs money. Ford estimates its 1971 Pinto carried $120 in federally required safety equipment. That soared to $325 for a 1975 model with new side-door reinforcing beams, stronger roof supports, heavier bumpers and seat belt warning systems.

PUTTING ON THE BRAKES
And some of the traffic safety agency's rules have been flops — like the bus-brake affair.

Last year, it required all new air-braked trucks, trailers and buses to carry bigger brakes and expensive computer systems to prevent the wheels from locking in a skid during panic stops.

But when the system's sensors on buses got out of adjustment by as little as six one-thousandths of an inch, the computer would release the brakes during normal braking speeds of about 10 mph and then slam on the brakes at around 5 mph, throwing passengers to the bus floor.

Bus companies began disconnecting their $1,200 "superbrake" system and Massachusetts threatened to lift the permits of any bus company using the federally required gear.

Finally, after three days of hearings and a two-month comment period, the agency temporarily suspended the standard on Jan. 7.

A similar, if slightly loosened standard is still in effect for semi-trailer truck rigs, despite protests and court suits by drivers and trucking firms.

JOB SAFETY AND HEALTH
In the five years since it was formed, the highly controversial Occupational Safety and Health Administration has produced no reliable indication that it has saved many workmen's lives or prevented any significant number of serious job injuries.

In fact, there is still no agreement on even how many workers are killed each year in job accidents. The Bureau of Labor Statistics estimates 5,900 died from job accidents or diseases in 1974, a projection based on reports by 600,000 employers.

'20 Million Items Banished From Stores, Homes As Being Unsafe'

"target industries" where OSHA concentrated early enforcement efforts.

Yet the rates of serious injuries — those which resulted in lost workdays — actually went up in three out of the five industries in 1973. In 1974, when no special enforcement efforts were made, the rate of serious injuries declined in three and went up in two.

In short, the statistics for the very industries where OSHA concentrated its efforts, show no trend in one direction or another.

If OSHA can't yet claim any clear victory, it at least has the satisfaction of proving its critics wrong on a number of counts.

Industry witnesses, for example, once predicted that OSHA's proposal to impose strict protection for workers in polystyrene plants would put 2.2 million people out of work and cost the economy at least $60 billion.

But OSHA was alarmed by 17 workers' deaths from a rare form of liver cancer linked to the chemical in lab tests with rats. Strict exposure limits were imposed.

What happened? In the year after OSHA's action, one plant did close, but four others opened and the price of polystyrene chloride declined about 10 per cent below previous highs.

ONCE A DECADE
Small businessmen also said they feared overzealous safety inspectors would ruin them.

But the average worker can expect to see one of OSHA's 1,400 compliance officers about once a decade, at present rates. Fines average $25 per violation. Employers appeal fewer than

SAFETY AT HOME

One federal agency has exercised power to decree that an electric frypan is unsafe and to make it harder to open aspirin bottles. It may order that all new bicycles and lawn mowers be redesigned.

In three years of existence, the Consumer Product Safety Commission has banished 20 million items from store shelves and homes on grounds they were unsafe.

These included bottles that exploded, disposable cigarette lighters that flared up unexpectedly, electric ranges that shocked their owners and snowmobiles prone to sudden steering failures.

The commission has made mistakes. The courts voided the commission's seizure of 100,000 imported dolls from Bradley Import Co. in Los Angeles. The commission said the dolls were unsafe for children because the costumes were held on with pins. The court, noting that the dolls sold in fashionable gift stores at prices around $75, said there was no evidence the dolls were intended for use by children.

The commission is now pondering a controversial proposal to require new safety features on lawnmowers, which injured 63,306 persons last year, according to a survey of hospital emergency rooms.

Consumers Union, which the commission paid to study the matter, estimates the proposal would add $40 to the cost of a $125 push-type mower, for a variety of features including rotor blades that stop instantly. But this $40 estimate is based on a survey of manufacturers that the consumer group feels is unreliable.

Consumers Union also estimates the benefits of the proposal would be between $83 million and $580 million, depending in part on what value is placed on the pain caused by such injuries. In short, the commission can't be sure what the mower safety proposal is worth or what it would cost.

POLLUTION

In its five-year life, the Environmental Protection Agency has made measurable progress in cleaning up the nation's air and water.

The Cuyahoga River in Ohio doesn't catch fire any more. Sport fishing is making a comeback in the Great Lakes. Smog has been reduced in Los Angeles.

Dust, smoke and soot in the nation's air have declined about 15 per cent since 1970 and sulphur dioxide, 25 per cent. This year's cars spew 83 per cent less hydrocarbons and carbon monoxide than 1970 models.

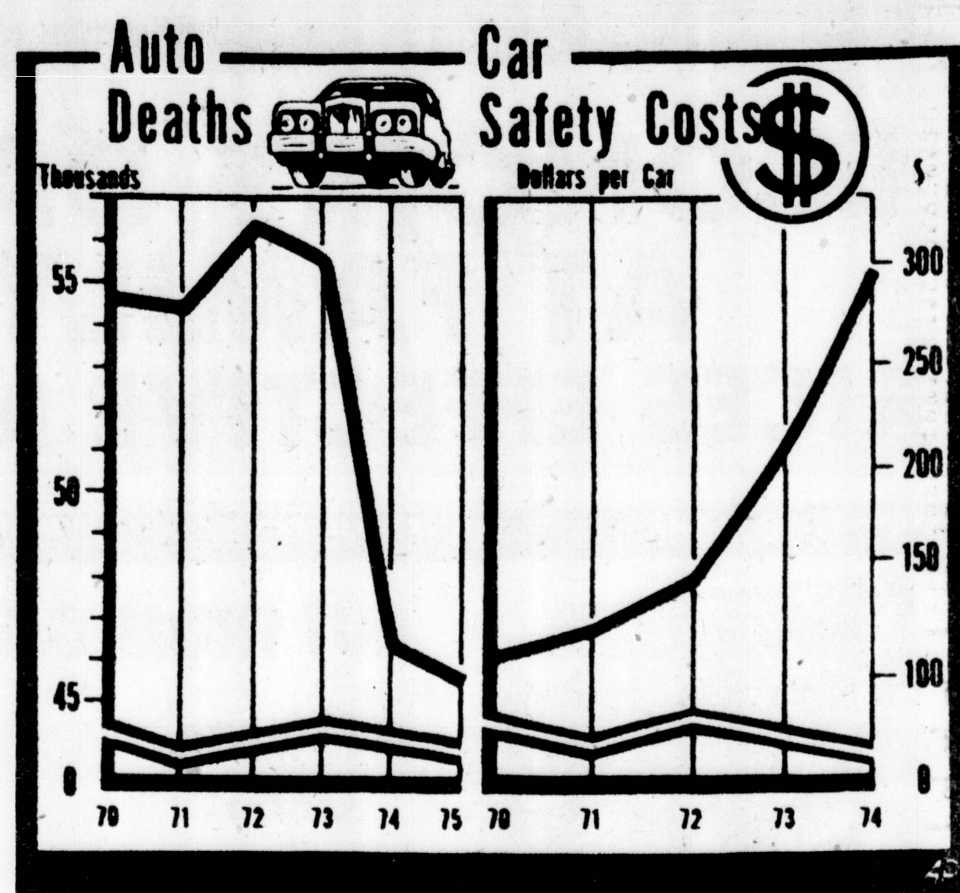

Yet the job of cleaning up the air and water is proving more difficult and expensive than was widely appreciated five years ago.

EPA says much of the dirt in the air isn't industrial soot, but dust blown from fields and rural roads. Smog-causing pollutants come not only from factories and cars, but also from forests.

The public rebelled when EPA said it would take severe gasoline rationing to meet Congress' schedule for clean air in Los Angeles, a move that would have virtually eliminated private auto use. EPA withdrew the plan.

Some of the costs could not have been foreseen even five years ago. Oil producing countries sharply increased the price of low-sulphur oil that had been used to reduce air pollution. Expensive smokestack scrubbers will now be required to allow generating plants to burn America's plentiful coal and still meet antipollution standards.

An analysis by the Brookings Institution estimates the costs of meeting presently scheduled air and water standards could be $500 billion over the next 10 years — or more than $230 a year for each American.

Hospital Will Defy
State Closing Order

HIGHLAND PARK, Mich. (AP) — Highland Park General Hospital officials, denying that hazardous conditions exist at the facility, say they will defy a state order and remain open.
Hospital administrator Andre Lee said a state Department of Public Health charge that the hospital is hazardous for employees and patients is untrue. The charge, made Friday by health department director Dr. Maurice Reizen, came just before the department ordered the hospital to transfer its present 80 patients to another facility and shut the hospital by March 27.
A spokesman for Highland Park Mayor Jessie Miller said the city hopes to negotiate an interim lease of the hospital from an Alabama investment firm, pending a special city election asking voters to approve a permanent lease plan already approved by the city council.
"There are violations here — nobody denies that," Lee said. "But I don't think they are as bad as the state is making them out to be."

Strip Strike Continues

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP) — A union that has closed 12 of 15 strike-bound Las Vegas Strip hotel-casinos says a lockout provision in a management proposal must be eliminated before talks can resume. A fruitless meeting Sunday between negotiators for the 22,000-member Culinary Workers Union and hotel operators added to the feeling here that the walkout, now four days old, could last a long time.

Hospital Will Defy State Closing Order

HIGHLAND PARK, Mich. (AP) — Highland Park General Hospital officials, denying that hazardous conditions exist at the facility, say they will defy a state order and remain open.

Hospital administrator Andre Lee said a state Department of Public Health charge that the hospital is hazardous for employees and patients is untrue. The charge, made Friday by health department director Dr. Maurice Reizen, came just before the department ordered the hospital to transfer its present 80 patients to another facility and shut the hospital by March 27.

A spokesman for Highland Park Mayor Jessie Miller said the city hopes to negotiate an interim lease of the hospital loan with an Alabama investment firm, pending a special city election asking voters to approve a permanent lease plan already approved by the city council.

"There are violations here — nobody denies that," Lee said. "But I don't think they are as bad as the state is making them out to be."

NEWS OF MARKETS

Market Declines Broadly

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market declined broadly today, continuing Friday's slide.

The Dow Jones average of 30 industrials dropped more than 3 points in the early going. Losers opened up a lead of better than 2 to 1 over gainers among New York Stock Exchange-listed issues.

Analysts said the market's drop Friday seemed to convince some investors that prices were due for a pullback after their sharp rise through the first 10 weeks of the year.

They also noted some uncertainty over the decision by France to withdraw from the joint float system of European currencies.

Today's early prices included RCA, up 1/4 at 27 1/2; Philip Morris, unchanged at 51 1/4; and General Motors, 3/4 lower at 67 1/2.

On Friday the Dow Jones industrial average dropped 15.57 to 887.84, cutting its gain for the week to 14.72 points.

Losers outpaced gainers by more than a 2-1 margin among NYSE-listed issues, and the exchange's composite index lost .52 to 53.81.

Big Board volume came to 26.02 million shares.

At the American Stock Exchange, the market value index was off .82 at 104.48.

Stray Dogs Blamed For Sheep Kill

BERRIEN CENTER — State police from the Niles post said David Keys told troopers that two sheep on his property, located south of here at 1800 True road, were killed by a pack of stray dogs yesterday morning.

Keys told police that the sheep were valued at $50 each.

Police said Keys' report was the only report of livestock in the area being killed by dogs.

Anyone with information about the stray dogs is asked to contact the Berrien county dog pound in Berrien Center, police said.

Projects Are Valued At $7,150

SOUTH HAVEN — Three permits for projects estimated to cost $7,150 were issued in South Haven township during February, according to Building Inspector James Schenke.

Permits were issued to George Crow, M-43, tackle and bait shop, $4,150; Robert Walker, 74th street, addition to house, $2,000; and Al Goodridge, Blue Star highway, addition to garage, $1,000.

Apartment Fire Doused

Benton township firemen extinguished a fire early today that was confined to a storage closet in a Benton township housing commission apartment at 1082 Highland avenue. Occupants of the apartment, Barbara Sims and four young children who were asleep at the time of the fire, escaped unharmed. Cause of the 12:30 a.m. blaze was undetermined and is under investigation, firemen reported.

STATE TART CHERRIES Storm Wipes Out A Tenth Of Crop

By JERRY KRIEGER
Farm and Features Editor

Upwards of 10 per cent of the state's tart cherry production may have been destroyed by the severe ice storm of March 3 that left many orchards in the west central fruit producing district of the state heavily damaged.

Some news media reports that the crop production loss next season would run up to 25 per cent apparently were the result of a misunderstanding of the fact that the state has several producing areas. The other areas have about 75 per cent of the trees and did not suffer damage.

William MacLean, west central district horticultural agent for the Michigan State University Extension Service, estimated that 23 to 30 per cent of the tart cherry trees in Oceana, Kent, Ottawa and Mason counties were destroyed by the ice.

Those four counties raise about 25 per cent of the tart cherries grown in Michigan. If one-third of the trees are lost in the west central district, it would mean the loss of upwards of 10 per cent of the state's tart cherry production, MacLean noted.

The district horticultural agent said some growers suffered the loss of 40 to 60 per cent of their trees, and will force these growers to remove the entire orchards. He added that any orchards that have lost one-third of their trees are not worth salvaging and should be removed completely. Orchards with one-third of the trees missing will not produce economic returns, he explained.

The biggest tart cherry producing area in the state, the northwestern district, radiating out around the Grand Traverse area, has about 45 to 50 per cent of the state's trees, and southwestern Michigan has about 25 per cent of the trees. These two districts were not affected by the ice storm.

Growers in the west central district are preparing for a vast cleanup operation in their orchards.

Rodney Bull of Casnovia said he lost 40 per cent of his 10,000 trees.

John Anderson, a grower near Kent City north of Grand Rapids, said that on the night of the ice storm "it sounded like someone shooting guns," as the trees split throughout the night with a loud snapping noise. He said it will be seven years before he will be able to produce cherries again, meaning he will have to remove his orchard and start over with new trees.

Another grower, Jon Chase of Kent City estimated it will cost him about $700 an acre to clear and replant his orchard.

Jerry Hall, an MSU horticulturist, reported that growers who want to replant entire orchards or replace destroyed trees within existing orchards may find the supply of young trees inadequate. He said the supply of trees probably is great enough only for normal replanting demands.

clinic, why not fund the people, which would allow them to choose where they want to go for their care, whether it be in the private office or the Benton Harbor clinic? This gives the individual freedom of choice.

"It is the opinion of the Lakeland Valley Dental Society that public funds, if available for dental care of Benton Harbor citizens, could most effectively be administered through such an organization as the Michigan Dental Service Corporation (Delta Dental plan of Michigan). In our opinion, this group would afford greater supervision of funds and complete accountability which would result in maximum services for those persons served."

"The LVDS approved and supported a proposed privately funded dental clinic in Benton Harbor back in September, 1974, but opposition of some of the leaders in the black community resulted in abandonment of the idea."

"It is the desire of the Lakeland Valley Dental Society to cooperate with the appropriate authorities and through joint cooperative efforts, everyone will benefit."

NILES TOWNSHIP Taxpayers Protest Land Reassessment

By JOHN DYE
South Berrien Bureau

NILES — Reassessment of land values in Niles township has produced criticism and a pledge from a taxpayers' association to ask for a state senate taxation committee investigation.

But the chairman of that committee, Sen. Harry DeMaso, R-Battle Creek, said in a telephone interview last night that his committee will not launch an investigation until it receives a formal request from the Niles Township Taxpayers' association and until the township's board of review has completed its annual review of appeals of assessments.

Douglas Gast, a spokesman for the taxpayers association, said land assessments in the township were raised from 30 to 300 per cent after the reassessment was recently completed by township Supervisor John McDonald.

Gast said the reassessments are not uniform and that buildings were not included in the reassessment.

That has prompted fears that once a township sewer system now under construction is completed, house and building values will jump because of the addition of the system, he added.

Plans for a petition drive to seek the state senate committee investigation were announced at a Friday night meeting of the association.

Mrs. Joann Plock, another spokesman for the group, said petitions will also be circulated at tonight's township board meeting.

She said the group has also scheduled a meeting Tuesday to air additional complaints about the reassessments. That will be at 7:30 p.m. in the Brandywine high school library.

McDonald defended his land assessment study. He said the books were required by a state mandate that all property be assessed at 50 per cent of its true value.

He said that while assessments may go up, the tax equalization factor will go down, producing an average 10 to 14 per cent increase in tax bills.

The factor is expected to drop from 1.17 to 1.1, he said.

The township supervisor, who has already announced he will not be a candidate for re-election this year, said the last assessment of township property was conducted in the early 1960's.

He said he considered an average 10 to 14 per cent increase in tax bills to be reasonable if consideration is given for "13 to 15 years of inflation and appreciation of land."

drafted a report last summer recommending disapproval. He also wrote in a letter on Jan. 20, 1975, to Ralph Walton, the resort's president and Callaway's brother-in-law, that "ski area development is essentially an irreversible commitment of resources which we do not feel is necessary at this time."

Last summer, Callaway met with Forest Service officials in his Pentagon office and asked that the expansion be allowed, Campbell said.

No action has been taken on the requested expansion. The Forest Service last month approved a request by the Gurnison County Commission for a six-month delay before an environmental impact statement is filed.

NEWS OF MARKETS

Market Declines Broadly

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market declined broadly today, continuing Friday's slide.

The Dow Jones average of 30 industrials dropped more than 3 points in the early going. Losers opened up a lead of better than 2 to 1 over gainers among New York Stock Exchange-listed issues.

Analysts said the market's drop Friday seemed to convince some investors that prices were due for a pullback after their sharp rise through the first 10 weeks of the year.

They also noted some uncertainty over the decision by France to withdraw from the joint float system of European currencies.

Today's early prices included RCA, up 1/4 at 27 1/2; Philip Morris, unchanged at 51 1/4, and General Motors, 3/4 lower at 67 1/2.

On Friday the Dow Jones industrial average dropped 15.67 to 987.64, cutting its gain for the week to 14.72 points.

Losers outpaced gainers by more than a 2-1 margin among NYSE-listed issues, and the exchange's composite index lost .52 to 53.91.

Big Board volume came to 26.02 million shares.

At the American Stock Exchange, the market value index was off .82 at 104.48.

Stray Dogs Blamed For Sheep Kill

BERRIEN CENTER — State police from the Niles post said David Keys told troopers that two sheep on his property, located south of here at 1800 True road, were killed by a pack of stray dogs yesterday morning.

Keys told police that the sheep were valued at $90 each.

Police said Keys' report was the only report of livestock in the area being killed by dogs.

Anyone with information about the stray dogs is asked to contact the Berrien county dog pound in Berrien Center, police said.

Projects Are Valued At $7,150

SOUTH HAVEN — Three permits for projects estimated to cost $7,150 were issued in South Haven township during February, according to Building Inspector James Schnake.

Permits were issued to George Crow, M-43, tackle and bait shop, $4,150; Robert Walker, 74th street, addition to house, $2,000; and Al Goodrode, Blue Star highway, addition to garage, $1,000.

Apartment Fire Doused

Benton township firemen extinguished a fire early today that was confined to a storage closet in a Benton township housing commission apartment at 1082 Highland avenue. Occupants of the apartment, Barbara Sims and four young children who were asleep at the time of the fire, escaped unharmed. Cause of the 12:50 a.m. blaze was undetermined and is under investigation, firemen reported.

STATE TART CHERRIES

Storm Wipes Out A Tenth Of Crop

By JERRY KRIEGER
Farm and Features Editor

Upwards of 10 per cent of the state's tart cherry production may have been destroyed by the severe ice storm of March 3 that left many orchards in the west central fruit producing district of the state heavily damaged.

Some news media reports that the crop production loss next season would run up to 25 per cent apparently were the result of a misunderstanding of the fact that the state has several producing areas. The other areas have about 75 per cent of the trees and did not suffer damage.

William MacLean, west central district horticultural agent for the Michigan State University Extension Service, estimated that 25 to 30 per cent of the tart cherry trees in Oceana, Kent, Ottawa and Mason counties were destroyed by the ice.

Those four counties raise about 25 per cent of the tart cherries grown in Michigan. If one-third of the trees are lost in the west central district, it would mean the loss of upwards of 10 per cent of the state's tart cherry production, MacLean noted.

The district horticultural agent said some growers suffered the loss of 40 to 60 per cent of their trees, and will force these growers to remove the entire orchards. He added that any orchards that have lost one-third of their trees are not worth salvaging and should be removed completely. Orchards with one-third of the trees missing will not produce economic returns, he explained.

The biggest tart cherry producing area in the state, the northwestern district, radiating out around the Grand Traverse area, has about 45 to 50 per cent of the state's trees, and southwestern Michigan has about 25 per cent of the trees. These two districts were not affected by the ice storm.

Growers in the west central district are preparing for a vast cleanup operation in their orchards.

Rodney Bull of Casnovia said he lost 40 per cent of his 10,000 trees.

John Anderson, a grower near Kent City north of Grand Rapids, said that on the night of the ice storm "it sounded like someone shooting guns," as the trees split throughout the night with a loud snapping noise. He said it will be seven years before he will be able to produce cherries again, meaning he will have to remove his orchards and start over with new trees.

Another grower, Jon Chase of Kent City estimated it will cost him about $700 an acre to clear and replant his orchards.

Attempt To Rape Child Is Charged

A young Lincoln township man was arrested early Sunday by Benton township police on a charge of criminal sexual misconduct, second degree (attempted rape), involving a five-year-old girl.

Booked at the Berrien county jail was Ricky Gaines Welch, 17, of 1359 Norman road.

Police said the alleged incident occurred in a restroom at Lennie's Auction, 2162 Red Arrow highway, Benton Heights, shortly before 11 p.m. Saturday. The Benton township girl, who was reported unhurt, was with her mother at the auction, police said.

Police said a man fled on foot from the auction building and police apprehended Welch about 4:30 a.m. Sunday walking near the intersection of Crawford avenue and Gestner road, Benton Heights. Police said they had a description of the man seen fleeing the building and searched the area.

Bags of sulfur were accidentally ignited by cutting torches being used to tear down the former Edgewater plant of Ball Rubber Saturday about 1 p.m., according to St. Joseph firemen.

The bags were removed from the building and the flames were extinguished by firefighters. Damage was confined to the bags of sulfur. A number of firemen complained of a burning sensation in their eyes from the sulfur, but none required hospital treatment. The buildings are now owned by Whirlpool Corp.

clinic, why not fund the people, which would allow them to choose where they want to go for their care, whether it be in the private office or the Benton Harbor clinic? This gives the individual freedom of choice.

"It is the opinion of the Lakeland Valley Dental Society that public funds, if available for dental care of Benton Harbor citizens, could most effectively be administered through such an organization as the Michigan Dental Service Corporation (Delta Dental plan of Michigan). In our opinion, this group would afford greater supervision of funds and complete accountability which would result in maximum services for those persons served."

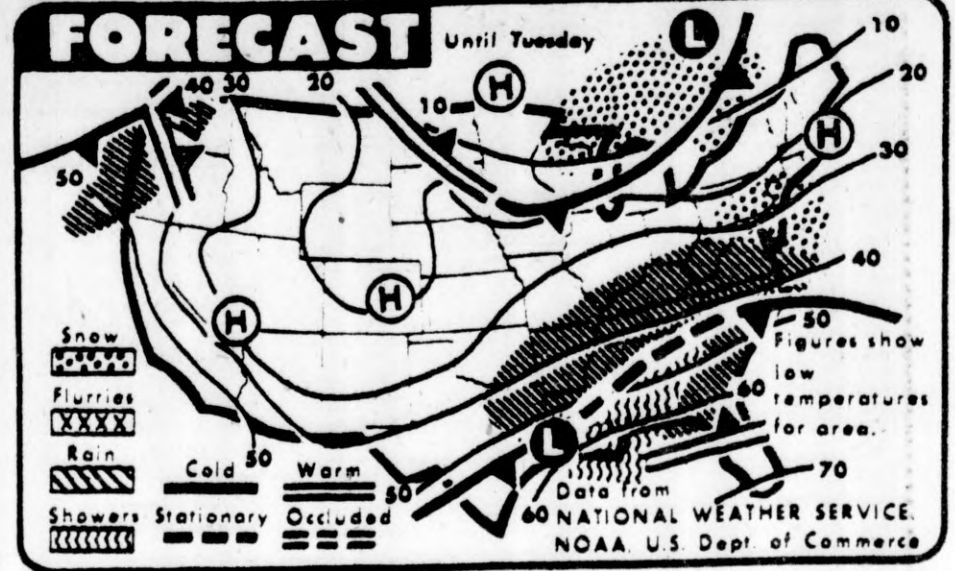

"The LVDS approved and supported a proposed privately funded dental clinic in Benton Harbor back in September, 1974, but opposition of some of the leaders in the black community resulted in abandonment of the idea."

"It is the desire of the Lakeland Valley Dental Society to cooperate with the appropriate authorities and through joint cooperative efforts, everyone will benefit."

NILES TOWNSHIP Taxpayers Protest Land Reassessment

By JOHN DYE

South Berrien Bureau
NILES — Reassessment of land values in Niles township has produced criticism and a pledge from a taxpayers' association to ask for a state senate taxation committee investigation.

But the chairman of that committee, Sen. Harry DeMaso, R-Battle Creek, said in a telephone interview last night that his committee will not launch an investigation until it receives a formal request from the Niles Township Taxpayers association and until the township's board of review has completed its annual review of appeals of assessments.

Douglas Gast, a spokesman for the taxpayers association, said land assessments in the township were raised from 30 to 300 per cent after the reassessment was recently completed by township Supervisor John McDonald.

Gast said the reassessments are not uniform and that buildings were not included in the reassessment.

That has prompted fears that once a township sewer system now under construction is completed, house and building values will jump because of the addition of the system, he added.

Plans for a petition drive to seek the state senate committee investigation were announced at a Friday night meeting of the association.

Mrs. Joann Flock, another spokesman for the group, said petitions will also be circulated at tonight's township board meeting.

She said the group has also scheduled a meeting Tuesday to air additional complaints about the reassessments. That will be at 7:30 p.m. in the Brandywine high school library.

McDonald defended his land assessment study. He said the boosts were required by a state mandate that all property be assessed at 50 per cent of its true value.

He said that while assess-

Officers Report Scuffles, Arrests

Two St. Joseph police officers were involved in scuffles Sunday and early today that resulted in the arrests of two men, one charged with felonious assault and the other with resisting arrest.

Neither Patrolman Jim Reeves nor Patrolman Joseph Garski required medical aid after the unrelated incidents.

Booked at the Berrien county jail on the assault charge against Reeves was William Francis Craft Jr., 21, of 3003 Lake Shore drive, St. Joseph.

Garski said Gerald Stephen Scott, 24, of 1286 Pearl street, Benton Harbor, was booked on charges of resisting arrest and driving under the influence of intoxicants.

Reeves reported he was struck on the shoulder with a nightstick by a man he was questioning about a minor collision in a parking lot at 3003 Lake Shore drive Sunday about 11 p.m.

Garski said he struggled with a man he had arrested on a charge of driving under the influence of intoxicants. The incident occurred about 1:20 a.m. in the 1300 block of State street, Garski reported.

State police of the Benton Harbor post arrested a man Sunday on four charges including assault and battery against a trooper.

Booked at the Berrien county jail on the assault charge and charges of leaving the scene of a property damage accident, driving with a suspended operator's license and driving under the influence of liquor was Ronnie Lee Musgrove, 19, of 1006 North Euclid avenue, Benton township.

Trooper George Tiernan said a man pushed him down and hit him in the shoulder as he was attempting to question the man about an auto collision that occurred about 4:45 p.m. Tiernan did not require medical treatment.

Tiernan said a parked car was struck on Hatch street west of Euclid and he followed a trail of oil and water to a house on North Euclid. The car, owned by Charles F. Graham, 2074 Hatch, was unoccupied when struck.

A St. Joseph township man was arrested in St. Joseph early Sunday after city police confiscated a quantity of suspected heroin from an auto, stopped for speeding.

Booked on a charge of violating the controlled substance act (possession of heroin) was Timothy E. House, 18, of 3158 Washington avenue. He was lodged in Berrien county jail.

Police said a young woman passenger in the auto was released, pending a review by the Berrien county prosecutor's office.

The auto was reported stopped at 3:50 a.m. for traveling 45 miles an hour in a 30 mile zone on Niles avenue, near Columbia avenue.

Police said six tin foil packets of suspected heroin (according to a preliminary field test) were confiscated, along with 11 firecrackers. A quantity of heroin equal to the amount of substance confiscated would have a street value of about $60, police reported.

Citizens' band radios and televisions were the main target of thieves in 10 thefts reported over the weekend to Twin Cities area police. Also investigated were thefts from several vending machines.

Benton Harbor police said a citizens' band radio, radio amplifier and a purse containing $110 in cash were reported stolen from the car of Billy Olmire, 1231 Maple lane, Hagar township. Olmire told police the locked car was parked in a lot in the 600 block of West Main street. The theft was reported about 2:15 p.m. Sunday and police said the purse, minus the cash, was found in the 800 block of Pavine street shortly before 3 p.m. The stolen radio equipment was valued at about $800.

Another theft reported to Benton Harbor police was the 1974 Cadillac of George Lee Perry, 309 Clay avenue. He told police the white and green auto was parked in his driveway.

Berrien sheriff's deputies reported an undetermined amount of change was stolen from four vending machines at the county road commission office, 2800 East Napier avenue, Benton township. Deputies said a side window was pried open to gain entry to the lunch room area of the building. Change boxes were pried from the four machines. The theft was discovered about 9 a.m. Sunday by Art Moyer, plant manager.

An undetermined amount of money was reported stolen from a cash drawer and cigarette machine at the Red Couch bar, 5725 St. Joseph avenue, Stevensville, Berrien deputies said. Deputies reported the theft appeared to have been committed by someone who hid inside the building before it closed early Saturday. The theft was discovered when the building was opened again for business at 8:40 a.m. Saturday.

Other thefts reported to Benton Harbor police were:

—A portable television, valued at $130, from the home of Mary Thomas, 1015 Agard avenue.

—A citizens' band radio, valued at $120, from the pickup of Charles Ethridge, 757 Nickerson avenue, Benton township, parked in the 200 block of Pipestone street.

—A citizens' band radio, valued at $50, from the truck of Robert J. Smith, 3805 Fieldtree drive, Benton township, parked on Jean Klock road.

Thefts investigated by St. Joseph police were:

—A banjo, valued at $250, from the car of Daniel Garb, 926 Michigan avenue.

—A citizens' band radio, no value listed, from the car of Mary Bucher, route 1, Box 218, Sawyer, parked in the lot of Gersonde Bowling lanes, 2705 Cleveland avenue.

State police of the Benton

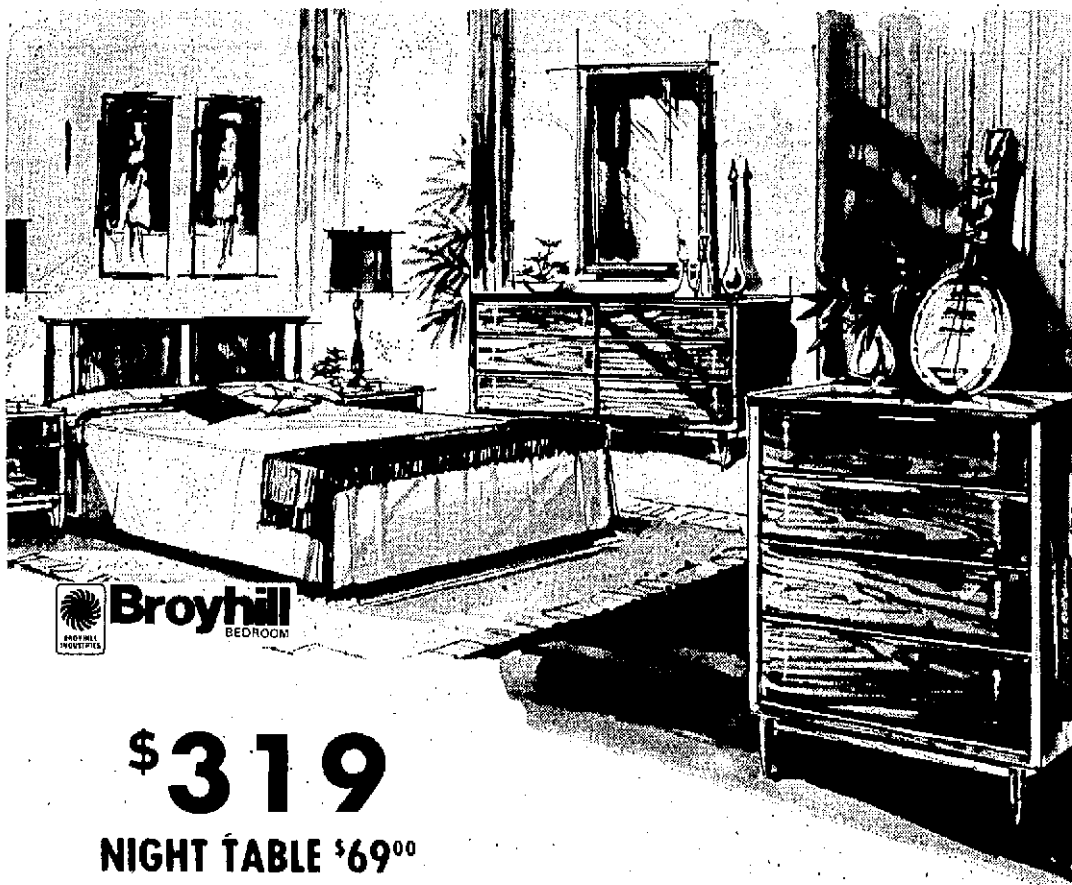

Harbor post reported four people were arrested on charges of possession of marijuana after two cars were stopped for speeding on I-94 over the weekend. On Booked on charges of violating the controlled substance act Saturday afternoon were, Robert T. Webb, 18, and Mark J. Kovach, 19, both of Munster, Ind., and Patty Ann Kimbrell, 17, of 507 West Front street, Buchanan. Troopers said they were occupants of an auto stopped for speeding 73 miles an hour in Lincoln township.

Troopers said Christopher L. Richardson, 19, Chicago, was looked on a similar charge, when an auto he was riding in was stopped at 12:50 a.m. Sunday for traveling 74 miles an hour in Lake township. Troopers also said the driver, Melvin Ford, 19, Chicago, was booked on a charge of possessing open intoxicants in a vehicle.

A Hammond, Ind., man, stopped for speeding on I-94 in Benton township Saturday afternoon, was jailed when a computer check indicated he was wanted for allegedly failing to appear on a charge of carrying a concealed weapon in Missouri, according to state police at the Benton Harbor post.

Arrested, pending extradition proceedings, was George W. Jones Jr., 30, who was reported traveling 79 miles an hour. The post said a computer check shows that a George W. Jones is sought by Scott county, Mo., sheriff's officers, who hold a warrant.
